GOD'S MERCY & RECENT REVELATIONS

God is doing something unusual, something spectacular in this end-time. He is taking men and women to go and see heaven and hell, and to come back to the world to tell people what they saw. God lays His hands on people from different nations all over the world – from Ecuador, US, South Korea, Nigeria, Colombia, Angola and from several other countries around the world – to see and even experience what this terrible place called 'Hell' looks like.

What they all come back to tell us is that hell does exist, that hell is very real, that hell is far more terrible than any man on earth can imagine, and that there is absolutely nothing on earth that prepares any man for what the lost sinner will experience in hell<sup>1</sup>. These men and women that God decides to use are from different nations on the earth, they have never met

1. I believe that God shows people more of hell than of heaven, because we are naturally prone to sin as humans, making most people to be on their way to hell without knowing it. Loving God alone is not enough to make us live a holy and perfect life. We need both the love of God and the fear of God. Once a person escapes hell, that automatically means he or she is fit for heaven.

each other, and yet there is great agreement and unison in their testimonies. Yes, there are few minor differences in some areas of emphasis, but in very large measures, they agree on most plain and critical issues.

A few of such people to whom God has revealed heaven and hell in recent times include: Mary Baxter & Bill Wiese from the US, Adelaida from Bolivia; Allen Bamgbose, Abraham Yakubu and Isaac Amata from Nigeria (we have physically met and invited the last two – Yakubu and Amata to our local church to share their experiences), Yong-Doo Kim (including many prayer warriors from the church he pastors) and Yong Gyu Park of South Korea, Angelica Zambrano from Ecuador, and the 7 Colombia youths, to mention but a few.

They all tell us that the pains, torture, agonies, regrets, stench, darkness, heat and tribulations in hell cannot be described in human words. The horrific torture in hell will continue throughout all eternity. Eternity is time without end. Pastor Kumuyi endeavours to assist us to attempt a mental conceptualisation of what eternity is, when he submits:

Suppose it were possible to tie a rope from earth to heaven and an ant were to go to the sun and return to earth on this rope. When an ant has done that a hundred times, then a small fraction of eternity has passed. You will still be alive. Suppose a small boy were to empty an ocean with a cup, the time it will take the boy is an infinitesimally small part of eternity. If, again, a grain of sand represents one day, all the grains of sand on the seashore will represent only a small, negligible part of eternity!

If a bird went to sharpen its beak once a year at a mountain, when the bird wears out the mountain in this way, only an insignificant part of eternity would have passed. In short, eternity is the lifetime of the never-dying God! And you will live for eternity. You will be alive eternally as God will be alive eternally. Once born, a person remains consciously alive forever.<sup>2</sup>

We should therefore fear and tremble, when we understand that a soul does not die, that a person who does not have Christ or is not standing firm in Christ in holiness and the fear of God will spend eternity in hell fire, in a condition of endless torture and agony. On the other hand, a person that dies in Christ Jesus, who has kept his heart and life pure by continuously seeking and walking with God, will spend eternity in heaven, forever and ever, in a place where the Bible says that eye has not seen, ear has not heard, and it has not come to the mind of any man, the beautiful and glorious things God has prepared for those that love Him (I Cor.2:9).

2. "Eternity", a tract authored by Pastor W.F. Kumuyi.

There is no purgatory, no third option, and no intervening place after death where one can make amends for sins committed on earth. Without any intention to insult anybody's religion or belief, the lie of purgatory is introduced by the devil to deceive and destroy the souls of men irretrievably, as they fail to seek the Lord and make peace with Him while He may be found.

And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment, so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. To those who eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time, apart from sin, for salvation – Heb. 9:27-28

We devote a major part of this small book to presenting excerpts from their testimonies, obtained from hard copies of their books or from free downloads from websites that present their account.

A wise person will take their accounts seriously because:

1. They don't know each other, have never met and yet their experiences are similar and agree in very large measure.
2. They have nothing to gain by coming to say what they did not see or experience. Many of them are simple, unknown members of their churches, who cannot be suspected or accused of wanting to pull crowd into their congregations. Many of their testimonies are posted on the internet and can be downloaded free of charge. Yong-Doo Kim has made the book that carries his accounts of heaven and hell – Baptized by Blazing Fire – which exists in five volumes available for free download in his website – spiritlessons.com.

3. Except anyone doubts that hell really exists, and we are sure it does, anybody that comes to the earth to give a false account, claiming to experience what he or she actually did not, will for that reason end up in hell.
4. If they are liars, then they are of the devil. The children of the devil only encourage people to commit sin, to enjoy themselves, to take things easy. Their father, the devil, would never encourage them to urge people to stay holy, stay away from sin, and draw closer to God because of eternity.
5. The Lord specifically tells all of them to record their experiences and spread the report all over the world through every means. The Lord ensures that the Holy Spirit supervises and assists them in getting out their accounts, and does not give them rest until they get out the message to the world. Yes, both the vessels and our Lord Himself are fully aware that most people would either not believe their accounts or would claim to believe, shed some crocodile tears immediately, and sooner or later go back to their old, sinful careless living. But God is sure that many will believe their testimonies, fear and tremble before God, genuinely repent, and continue thenceforth to walk in the narrow way of holiness and godliness that leads to eternal life. And indeed, hundreds of thousands have repented and turned to God through their testimonies, while a much larger number have continued in their sinful and careless ways even after knowing these truths. The blood of such foolish individuals would be on their own heads throughout all eternity, and they would have only themselves to blame as they spend eternity in hell, being tormented by extremely vicious demons.

For the above few reasons, anyone who is spiritually intelligent and who is wise unto salvation would resist the temptation from the devil to doubt these testimonies. Anyone who cares for his soul will take the testimonies seriously and will check his life and get things straight with God now, when there is still time, when God can still be found.

God warns us in His Word:

Seek the Lord while He may be found,

Call upon Him while He is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way,

And the unrighteous man his thoughts;

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

*Let him return to the Lord,
And He will have mercy on him;
And to our God,
For He will abundantly pardon – Is.55:6-7*

The acceptable time set by God for man to totally repent of his sins and fully surrender unto the Lord Jesus Christ is fast running out:

We then, as workers together with Him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For He says: “In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you”. Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation – II Cor.6:1-2

It is personally painful and incomprehensible to me that many men and women on earth are wise in the affairs of this life, but are not wise unto salvation. They know how to make money in business, how to structure an organisation and design winning corporate strategies in business. Man is marvellously gifted in science and technology, coming up with amazing inventions and devices. Man understands political manoeuvres that enable him to win elections in very complex political terrain. But in issues of eternity, and of seeking God to know the right way to eternal salvation, most men on earth are extremely foolish, irrational and careless; they think and act in ways that will cause them to regret throughout all eternity, when they will realize too late that they had acted in suicidal and self-destructive ways by ignoring God and rejecting the simple message of salvation through Christ Jesus while on earth.

It is only by studying and living by the simple precepts of God in the Bible that one becomes wise unto salvation, for God will judge the world through His Word, as presented in the Bible. It is only by living in faith and obedience in God's Word that a person becomes wise unto salvation. Concerning Timothy, Apostle Paul wrote:

But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be made perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works – II Tim. 3:14-17, KJV

People pursue the complex issues of life with great skills and dexterity but fail to seek eternal salvation through the gospel of salvation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and through the Word of God, simply because the gospel appears too simple unto men.

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent." Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. For Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom; but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.- I Cor. 1:18-25

There are others who claim that any revelation or divine information that is not specifically written in the Bible is to be rejected, that we should not believe what God is revealing through His children today. That again is foolishness and stubbornness. The Bible says:

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper." – II Chron.20:20

Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets – Amos 3:7 (NIV)

Yes, we must check every revelation against the principles and precepts of the Word of God, and if any revelation contradicts any scriptural injunction, we must reject it. But wisdom demands that we give serious attention to revelations that have scriptural backing in respect of principles, the details of which may have to do with the conditions of our 20th and 21st centuries, which the Lord may want to turn our attention to. We must of course check the lives of the persons or vessels through whom the revelations come, for by their fruit you shall know them (Matt. 7:15-20).

We have given several reasons above why we believe the testimonies of the several individuals to whom God has revealed heaven and hell and the conditions that take people to either heaven or hell. In addition to those reasons, we have some testimonies and biographies of some of these prophetic vessels that show that they are simple, prayerful, God-fearing servants of God who do not seek personal gains, and that they are not part of the several perverse, self-seeking false prophets and false teachers that inundate the church today. Most false prophets don't seriously warn people about sin, hell or judgment. They deceive only to exploit, make merchandise of men, and enslave them to follow and obey them without asking questions.

Given the agreement in the various testimonies presented below, which the people involved received independently of one another, we believe that wisdom unto salvation demands that we give very careful attention to the message God gave them to take to the whole world, in order to reduce the number of souls that drop into hell fire every day, due to wilful ignorance, stubbornness, disobedience and foolishness.

In the significant part of the rest of the book, we present just a few of the several accounts of people that the Lord has taken to hell either in near-death experiences, by taking their spirits out of their bodies for a moment or in trances that those that experience them cannot understand whether they were in the body or out of the body (II Cor.12:1-4).

EXCERPTS FROM ‘BAPTIZED BY BLAZING FIRE’

Baptized by Blazing Fire is a 5-volume book that narrates the account of Pastor Yong-Doo Kim and members of his small church in So Incheon, South Korea when they prayed almost non-stop for 30 days, with only short breaks in between. During that spiritual encounter, God consciously took Pastor Kim and some of his church members (such as Haak-Sung, Bong Nyo & Jo-Eun Kim) to see and experience heaven and hell, and the Lord specifically commanded Pastor Kim to carefully document their experiences and present them in a book which he must make available to the whole world.

Below is the account of the experiences of Pastor Kim and some of his church members.

Experience of Haak-Sung

“As soon as Jesus took my hand, my body floated in the air as light as a feather. When we arrived at our destination, there was a strange stench, and it was very dirty. I could hardly breathe due to the offensive smell all around me. “Jesus, my beloved Jesus. Where are we? I can’t see too well in front of me,” I shouted, but Jesus said, “Haak-Sung, don’t be frightened. This is hell. I will protect you, so do not worry. But look closely.”

The fire heated the gates of hell bright red, and even before entering, it was unbearably hot. I had to turn away from the scorching fire and the intense heat. I asked, “Jesus, how can we step into this pit of fire? I don’t think I can do this.” We went to a place that was pitch-dark, and I could not see a thing. Then, as soon as Jesus touched my eyes, I could see very clearly. There was an old lady with a look of despair sitting motionless and wearing a white traditional Korean dress. Jesus instructed, “Haak-Sung, look closer,” so I walked closer to the old lady. It was my maternal grandmother, who had passed away a few years earlier. When my mother left home, my maternal grandmother raised me. My grandmother loved us. I was not feeling right that my grandmother was in hell. With astonishment I shouted out to her, “Grandma, it’s me, Haak-Sung. How can a gentle and kind person end up here? Hurry, come out of there.”<sup>1</sup>

My grandmother quickly recognized me, and surprised, she asked, “Haak-Sung, why are you here? How did you come here?” I replied, “Jesus brought me here. Grandma, hurry

3. Gentleness and kindness without being born again through Christ Jesus, and without being fully committed to the Lord cannot lead one to heaven. The standard of God is far higher than the standard of man, and the Bible says that all our righteousnesses, that is, outside Christ, are like filthy rags before God – Is.64:6

and come out of there.” My grandmother cried and shouted, “Haak-Sung, as much as I want to get out, you can’t do what you want here. You must not end up here. Leave immediately” In tears I pleaded with Jesus, “Jesus, please help my grandmother come out. My grandmother lived a sad life.” In an instant, a large snake appeared below my grandmother’s leg and started coiling and winding up her body. I screamed loudly, “Ahh.” My grandmother fearfully shouted, “Save me, please,” but there was no use. “Jesus, my beloved Jesus, I am the one who’s done so much evil,” I cried. “Please do something, please.” Jesus did not say a word, but His heart was breaking as He watched. I cried and cried as I begged, but there was no use.

Even in the midst of the craziness, she asked about the welfare of the family and worried about them. “Haak-Sung, how are your sisters? What about your mother?” I replied, “Everyone is doing well,” and as I was answering her, the snake wrapped around her tighter. My grandmother’s agonizing screams grew louder and louder. Jesus took my hand and guided me, saying, “Haak-Sung, it’s time to go now.” I left the cries of my grandmother behind me and came out of hell. Jesus said, “In hell, compared to the physical world, all your senses are more certainly and clearly alive...Haak-Sung, don’t cry. You saw it clearly, so go and serve the Lord faithfully. Do you understand?” “

Experience of Bong-Nyo

Later Jesus again took me to visit hell. This time I saw my deceased father and my 26 year old younger brother. He committed suicide by ingesting poison. They were both naked. Their eyes met mine. “My older sister, Bong-Nyo, how did you come here? This is not a place for you. Big Sister, pray to the Lord. Hurry and plead with Him to get me out. Help me to get to Heaven. Now!” With his cry and plea, my brother was thrown into a pot of boiling liquid. I could hear it boiling.

I saw another face I knew, and it was my little sister’s mother-in-law. She earnestly requested that when I returned to Earth, she wanted her daughter-in-law and her family to believe in Jesus Christ, pray diligently, and see hell, so that they would all go to Heaven. She said, “I really didn’t know there was a hell, or how hot and miserable it is here. I once held a title of deacon at the church, but I never served at church. I had too many idols in the world, and it corrupted me. That is why I am here. I regret it so very much,” she shouted<sup>4</sup>. Then, she was thrown into the hot liquid the same way. I was so scared and sad, I could not take it any longer. My face was covered with tears, and the burning odor made my breathing difficult.

Jesus also continued shedding His tears. The Lord had an important lesson for me: “You have only one chance at Heaven, and that’s why you’re still physically alive.” I couldn’t do anything but watch them suffer. The fire in hell cannot be compared to the fire in our physical world.

4. She is evidently not talking here of physical idols or totems; the 'idols' she refers to are the affairs and pleasures of sin and of the world, that took her heart away from the Lord)

The Experience of Jo-Eun Kim

Even later that night, as I continued to pray in tongues, I was taken down to hell. I was in a place where there was some devil jabbing a long, sharp spear into rectangular shaped boxes. With foul language, it shouted, "You think you are a pastor? What kind of life did you live? I am ecstatic that you are here with me." The evil spirit continued to jab the boxes as it cursed. Loud, painful screams came from the boxes, as blood flowed out. I noticed the tops of the boxes were covered with canvass, with a large cross portrayed on it. The boxes were lined up in an orderly fashion, and they stretched endlessly. I could not see where they ended. I realized that they were coffins. Evil spirits were jabbing their long, sharp spears into the holes unmercifully. I asked the Lord, "Jesus, why are the caskets of former pastors here?" Jesus replied, "These pastors did not preach My gospel. They preached another gospel, and those who followed became depraved. This is their end result, a place in hell." Jesus said, "Depraved pastors will be judged greater (sic: more severely)."

In another part of hell, I saw other people in torment; they were in a burning large frying pan, screaming, "Hot. Ahh, help!" The large pan was glowing red, and when the oil touched their bodies, their flesh would disintegrate and only their bones would remain. They kept jumping around chaotically. Then their flesh would return, and the whole cycle started again, endlessly. I asked Jesus what they had done. Jesus said, "When they were in the world, they committed adultery against their spouses. They committed their acts in secret. And for their sin, they are in torment.”

Later, Jesus showed me a different place in hell, where there was a very large pit. It was full of people. Multitudes were being consumed by fire. The red-hot fire appeared as though it had a life of its own. People were running inside the pit, screaming from the intense heat. Jesus explained, “These are the people who believed in a false religion or those who rejected the gospel.”

Experience of Pastor Kim Yong Doo

Hell is pitch dark. The Lord opened my eyes and helped me to see while visiting hell. Whenever I go to hell, there are so many doors to hell. The doors are so varied, so many, different from one another. For example one of these door, as you enter hell, you fall into a place of lava; another place as you enter it becomes so narrow, as narrow as a knife (1mm), because the path is so narrow, everyone falls off onto one of the sides. There is no exit! When people fall off, there are very long needles sticking up on both sides, and so many souls get stuck there.

There is another (part of) hell that is like a blender. Any soul stuck there gets blended. There is also a place like a prison with iron bars. The electrical current that runs through the bars is so powerful. As soon as they touch the bars, the souls melt away. Imagine a small room with 5,000 people, and everyone is trying to get to the center, away from the bars. When people in the outer area get touched by the bars, they melt away entirely right away.<sup>3</sup>

There is a path to hell, as soon as you enter through the path, you cannot go back. It only goes forward, and you get sucked immediately. From there, the souls can see the path to heaven and they scream 'Oh no, I have to go to heaven! Oh no, I have to go to heaven now! Why am I here? No, no, please!' Because so many people are going to hell, they are pushing each other. In those instances, everybody push forward going straight to hell. The path to hell is so wide, as wide as a stadium. It seems that Hell is bigger than heaven, and only about 1 in a thousand goes to heaven.

Not many people go to heaven as you might think. Only a small amount of people make it to heaven, so don't be too confident with your salvation! Even though we have become the people of God, don't have the overconfidence that leads to conceit. You don't go to heaven because you are certain. You have to be humble and meek in order to go to heaven. Even though you have received salvation, you have to think as if you have not arrived at your salvation yet. That is why we have to work out our salvation with much fear and trembling every day (Phil.2:12).

When I go to hell, there are so many things that are shocking to me. There are countless pastors in hell. There are many famous seminary professors there also; many that you might know. There are pastors who have played with the gifts of God. And the place where the pastor's wives go is also big, you cannot even imagine. The place in Hell where Church leaders

---

5. Take note that when people's spiritual flesh melts away in hell, the body is formed back again, for the torture to continue.

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

go is also very big, and full of people. After seeing that place, I tell people 'don't desire to become pastors, because pastors are responsible for their congregation's souls'. I am asking those who desire to be servants of God, if possible just remain members of the church and diligently serve God. There are many members of my church who have graduated from the seminary, but are now working hard as regular members of church serving the Lord. Members of my church have greater faith than regular church pastors, that's how I fostered them. No matter where they are sent, they can cast out demons.

EXCERPTS FROM 'REVELATION OF HEAVEN & HELL'
(ANGELICA ELIZABETH ZAMBRANO)

Angelica Elizabeth Zambrano is a young Ecuadorian girl who as a teenager was shown the Kingdoms of Heaven and Hell, and the Return of Christ. The website that presents her account summarizes her experience thus:

“She witnessed Jesus weeping as He overlooked multitudes of souls lost forever, a world that has rejected Him, a Church that is mostly unprepared for Him, a people that have stopped witnessing to the lost, and an entertainment industry that even lures children to Satan. She witnessed many of our esteemed cultural icons suffering in the Pit; singers, entertainers, and even a Pope. Angelica was also shown how the Kingdom of Heaven is all wonderfully prepared and ready, an unimaginable glorious place, where no evil exists”.

Let's listen to her directly.

Suddenly, as He was speaking, everything started to move. The Earth shook and split open, and I saw a very dark hole below. We were standing on a sort of rock with angels surrounding us. I said, “Lord, I don't want to go to that place!” He said, “Daughter, do not fear, for I am with you.” In a split second we descended into the dark hole. I tried to see but there was a terrible darkness. I did see a huge circle, and hear millions of voices.

I was so hot, I felt my skin burning. I asked, “Lord, what is this? I don't want to go to this place!” The Lord said that this was just the tunnel to hell. There was a horrible, repulsive and nauseating smell, and I begged Jesus not to take me. He responded, “Daughter, it is necessary for you to come and know this place.” I cried, “But why, Lord, why?” And He said, ‘so that you can tell the truth to humanity; humanity perishes, it's lost and few are entering My Kingdom.’ In saying this, He would weep. His words strengthened and encouraged me, so I continued walking.

We arrived at the end of a tunnel, when I looked down I saw an abyss covered in flames. The Lord said “Daughter, I give this to you.” It was a large binder with blank sheets of paper. “Daughter, take this pencil so that you can write all that I will show you, what you will see and hear. You will write everything as you are observing it, as you will live it.” I said,

“Lord, I will do it, but I am already seeing so much, Lord. I am seeing souls being tormented, and immense flames.”

I told Jesus, “I will testify that hell is real, that hell exists, but take me out of here now!” And He replied, “Daughter, we haven’t even entered that place, and I have shown you nothing yet, and already you want Me to take you out of this place?” “Lord, please take me out of here,” I said. Then we started to descend into the abyss! I started to cry and scream, “Lord, no, no, no, no - I don’t want to go!” and He would reply, “You need to see this.”

I saw horrible demons, of all types, both large and small. They were running so fast, and carrying something in their hands. “Lord, why are they running like that and what are they carrying?” He answered, “Daughter, they run that way because they know their time is running out, because time is so short to destroy humanity and especially My people. That which they carry in their hands are darts to destroy humanity, because each demon is given a name and according to the name that is given to them, they have a dart to destroy that person and bring them to this place; their goal is to destroy that person and bring them to hell.” And I would see the demons running and exiting toward Earth and He told me. “They are going to Earth to bring and throw humanity into this place.” As He said this He would weep, He would weep so very much. He was weeping all the time and I would cry too.

The Lord said to me, “Are you ready to see what I am going to show you?” “Yes, Lord,” I said. He took me to a cell where I could see a young man being tormented among the flames. I noticed that the cell was enumerated, though I couldn't understand the numbers, they seemed to be backward. There was a huge plaque in that cell, and the young man had the number "666" on his forehead. He also had a big metallic plate that was encrusted into his skin. The worms that were eating him, were unable to damage that plate; neither did the flames burn it. He screamed, "Lord, have mercy on me. Take me out of this place. Forgive me, Lord!" But Jesus would respond, "it's late, too late: I gave you opportunities and you would not repent."

I asked Jesus, "Lord, why is he here?" Then I recognized him. On Earth, this young man knew the Word of God, but abruptly he walked away from the Lord, preferring alcohol, drugs and walking on the wrong path. He did not want to follow the way of the Lord. Jesus warned him many times on what could happen to him. Jesus said, "Daughter, he is in this place because anyone who rejects My word already has a judge: The Word that I have spoken will judge him in that last day," (John 12:48), and then Jesus wept.

When the Lord weeps, it's different than we do. He would weep with this pain in His heart and He would sob profoundly. "I did not create hell for humanity," Jesus said. So I asked Him, "Then why is humanity here, Lord?" He answered, "Daughter, I created hell for Satan and his angels, who are the demons; (Matt. 25:41) but, because of sin and the lack of repentance, humanity ends here, and there are more that perish than those who reach My glory!" (Matt 7:14.) He continued weeping and it would hurt me so much to see how

He cried. "Daughter, I gave My life for humanity, so that it would not perish, so that it would not end up in this place. I gave My life out of love and mercy, so that humanity would proceed to repentance and could enter the Kingdom of Heaven." Jesus would moan as someone who could no longer withstand the pain, that's how much pain He felt watching the people here.

Being with Jesus made me feel safe. I thought, "If I let go of the Lord, I'll be stuck here!" I asked, "Jesus, do I have relatives in this place?" He looked at me as I was crying and He said, "Daughter, I am with you," because I was so scared. He took me to another cell. I never could have imagined seeing a relative of mine in that cell. I saw this woman being tormented, she had worms that would eat her face off, and demons would plunge a type of spear into her body. She would scream, "No, Lord, have mercy on me, forgive me, please, take me out of this place for one minute!"

In Hell, people are tormented with the memories of what they did on Earth. Demons would mock people and tell them, "Worship and praise, because this is your kingdom!" and the people would scream remembering that they knew God, because they knew the Word. Those who had known the Lord were tormented twofold.

The Lord said, "There is no other opportunity [for those here]; there is still opportunity for those who are alive."

Angelica later saw her great-grandmother in hell.

I asked Him, "Lord, why is my great-grandmother here? I don't know if she ever knew you. Why is she here in hell, Lord?" He replied, "Daughter, she is here because she failed to forgive...Daughter, he who does not forgive, neither will I forgive him."

I asked, "Lord, but You do forgive, and You are merciful." And He answered, "Yes, Daughter, but it is necessary to forgive, because they have not forgiven many people, and that is why many people are in this place, because they failed to forgive...Go and tell humanity that it is time to forgive, and especially My people, for many of My people have not forgiven. Tell them to rid themselves of grudges, of resentment, of that hatred in their hearts, for it is time to forgive! If death were to surprise that person who has failed to forgive, that person will go to hell, for no one can purchase life." When we left that place, my great grandmother was engulfed in fire and she screamed, "Aaaah," and began to blaspheme the name of God, she would curse Him; every person in hell blasphemes against God.

As we left that area, I could see that hell was full of tormented souls. Many people would extend their hands out, begging Jesus to help them and take them out of there. But the Lord could not do anything for them and they would start blaspheming God. Then Jesus would weep and say, "It hurts Me to hear them, it hurts Me to see what they do, because I can no longer do anything for them. What I will tell you is that I still have opportunity for he who is still on Earth, who has not yet died, who is still alive; he still has time to repent!"

EXCERPTS FROM
'DIVINE REVELATION OF HELL'
(MARY BAXTER)

Mary Katherine Baxter is an American woman chosen by God to let the world know of the reality of Hell. Jesus Christ appeared to Mary Baxter on 40 consecutive nights and took Mary on a tour of Hell and Heaven. She walked, with Jesus, through the horrors of Hell and talked with many people. Jesus showed her what happens to souls when they die and what happens to the unbelievers and Servants of God who do not obey their calling.

Below are excerpts from her experience:

These are the gateways to hell," He said. "We will go into hell through one of them." Immediately, we entered one of the funnels. Inside, it looked like a tunnel, spinning around and around and back again like a top. A deep darkness descended on us, and with the darkness came a smell so horrible it took my breath away. Along the sides of this tunnel were living forms embedded in the walls. Dark gray in color, the forms moved and cried out to us as we passed. I knew without being told that they were evil. The forms could move but were still attached to the walls. A horrible smell came from them, and they screeched at us with the most awful cries. I felt an invisible, evil force moving inside the tunnels.

At times in the darkness, I could make out the forms. A dirty fog covered most of them. "Lord, what are these?" I asked as I held on tightly to Jesus' hand. He said, "These are evil spirits ready to be spewed out on the earth when Satan gives the orders." As we were going down inside the tunnel, the evil forms laughed and called out to us. They tried to touch us, but could not because of the power of Jesus. The very air was polluted and dirty, and only the presence of Jesus kept me from screaming at the sheer horror.

Oh, yes, I had all my senses - I could hear, smell, see, feel and even taste the evil in this place. If anything, my senses had become more sensitive, and the odor and filth almost made me sick. Screams filled the air as we came near the base of the tunnel. Piercing cries came up the dark tunnel to meet us. Sounds of all sorts filled the air. I could feel fear, death and sin all around me.

The worst odor I have ever smelled filled the air. It was the smell of decaying flesh, and it seemed to be coming from every direction. Never on earth had I felt such evil or heard such cries of despair. Soon I would find that these were the cries of the dead and that hell was filled with their wails.

I felt a gust of evil wind and a small suction force ahead of us. Lights like lightening or strobe flashes penetrated the black darkness and threw gray shadows on the walls. I could barely make out the form of something in front of me. I recoiled in shock when I realized that it was a large snake moving along ahead of us. As I continued to look, I saw those ugly snakes were slithering about everywhere.

Jesus said to me, "We will soon enter the left leg of hell. Ahead you will see great sorrow, pathetic sadness and indescribable horror. Stay close to Me, and I will give you strength and protection as we go through hell. The things you are about to see are a warning," He said. "The book you write will save many souls from hell. What you are seeing is real. Fear not, for I will be with you."

At long last, the Lord Jesus and I were at the bottom of the tunnel. We stepped out into hell. I will try to the best of my ability to tell you what I saw, and I will tell it in the order God gave it to me.

Ahead of us, as far as I could see, were flying objects darting here and there. Groaning sounds and pitiful cries filled the air. Up ahead I saw a dim light, and we began walking toward it. The path was a dry, powdery dirt. We were soon at the entrance to a small dark tunnel. Some things I cannot put on paper; they were too awful to describe. The fear in hell could be tasted, and I knew if I had not been with Jesus I would not make it back. In the writing of this, some of the things I saw I do not understand, but the Lord knows all things, and He helped me understand most of what I saw.

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

Let me warn you- don't go to that place. It is a horrid place of torments, excruciating pain and eternal sorrow. Your soul will always be alive. The soul lives forever. It is the real you, and your soul will go to either heaven or hell. To those of you who think that hell is here on earth-well, you are right - it is! Hell is in the center of the earth, and there are souls in torment there night and day. There are no parties in hell. No love. No compassion. No rest. Only a place of sorrow beyond your belief.

In the next pit was a woman on her knees, as if looking for something. Her skeletal form also was full of holes. Her bones were showing through, and her torn dress was on fire. Her head was bald, and there were only holes where her eyes and nose were supposed to be. A small fire was burning around her feet where she was kneeling, and she clawed the sides of the brimstone pit. The fire clung to her hands, and dead flesh kept falling off as she dug.

Tremendous sobs shook her. "O Lord, O Lord," she cried, "I want out." As we watched, she finally got to the top of the pit with her feet. I thought she was going to get out when a large demon with great wings that seemed to be broken at the top and hung down his sides ran to her. His color was brownish black, and he had hair all over his large form. His eyes were set far back into his head, and he was about the size of a large grizzly bear. The demon rushed up to the woman and pushed her very hard backward into the pit and fire. I watched in horror as she fell. I felt so sorry for her. I wanted to take her into my arms and hold her, to ask God to heal her and take her out of there.

Jesus knew my thoughts and said, "My child, judgment has been set. God has spoken. Even when she was a child, I called and called her to repent and to serve Me. When she was sixteen years old, I came to her and said, 'I love you. Give your life to Me, and come follow Me, for I have called you for a special purpose: I called all her life, but she would not listen. She said, 'Someday I will serve You. I have no time for You now. No time, no time, I have my life of fun. No time, no time to serve You, Jesus. Tomorrow I will.' Tomorrow never came, for she waited too long."

The woman cried out to Jesus, "My soul is truly in torment. There is no way out. I know that I wanted the world instead of You, Lord. I wanted riches, fame and fortune, and I got it. I could buy anything I wanted; I was my own boss. I was the prettiest, best-dressed woman of my time. And I had riches, fame and fortune, but I found I could not take them with me in death. O Lord, hell is horrible. I have no rest day or night. I am always in pain and torment. Help me, Lord," she cried.

The woman looked up at Jesus so longingly and said, "My sweet Lord, if only I had listened to you! I will regret that forever. I planned to serve You someday - when I got ready. I thought You would always be there for me. But how wrong I was! I was one of the most sought-after women of my time for my beauty. I knew God was calling me to repent. All my life He drew me with cords of love, and I thought I could use God like I used everyone else. He would always be there. Oh yes, I used God! He would try so hard to get me to serve Him, while all the time I thought I didn't need Him. Oh, how wrong I was! For Satan began to use me, and I began to serve Satan more and more. At the last I loved him more than God. I loved to sin and would not turn to God. Satan used my beauty and my money, and all my thoughts turned to how much power he would give me. Even then, God continued to draw me. But I thought, I have tomorrow or the next day. Then one day while riding in a car, my driver ran into a house, and I was killed. Lord, please let me out.” As she spoke, her bony hands and arms reached out to Jesus while the flames continued to burn her.

Jesus said, “The judgment is set.” Tears fell down His cheeks as we moved to the next pit. I was crying inside about the horrors of hell. “Dear Lord,” I cried, “the torment is too real. When a soul comes here, there is no hope, no life, no love. Hell is too real.” No way out, I thought. She must burn forever in these flames

4 HOUR INTERVIEW IN HELL
(The Experience of Allen Bamgbose as written by Yemi Bankole)

Allen Bamgbose is a Nigerian with a Yoruba father and Igbo mother. The Lord revealed to him the horror of hell and gave him the opportunity to carefully narrate this experience to one Mr Yemi Bankole, who assisted in documenting the account in the book – 4 Hour Interview in hell. He believes that “God had revealed this to me, one, because he wanted those that would hear the story to give up sinning and give in to Jesus – the Bright and Morning Star. Two, to warn all men of the reality of hell...”

Here are some excerpts from the book, narrating his experience:

As we advanced, the big iron gate before us opened on its own accord and we passed. We entered this large space where the hell is. Hell fire is vast and restless. As it emits heat beyond measure, so its victims roll up and down, gnashing their teeth in the brutal flame. To see the other end of hell is impossible. The noise of horror and the scream of pain from the people who are more than the world population is continual. For in no earthly empire was so large a population subject to a single emperor and a body of law as the people in hell are subject to the flame of fire and the dos and don'ts of the fallen angels inside it.

“So, hell is as terrible as this? Who can tell?” I became stationary in that point. Friends, the human limitation will in no doubt, hinder me from being able to describe hell as vividly as I saw it, no matter how I try. The fire of hell was as thick as a heavy cloud and rolled on its crest like a raging sea from its unknown depth to its immeasurable height. Hidden away in its flame were people of different races and languages, whose sin escaped discovery in the world but became open scandal in the record above. There was neither class distinction nor racial prejudice in hell, because teenagers, young people and the aged were packed together inside it. The terror of the furnace was against them for anger. As the fire kept rolling from its far depth, their cry of sorrow and call for help reached the crescendo. As they came up in its troublous tide, so they sank down thousand feet deep again, that for the next thirty to forty minutes they were buried under this heavy flame. Darkness instead of a ray of hope hung on their brows. They gnashed their teeth in absolute extremities. Friends, no mortal man can explain the horror of eternal burning and the hopeless state of the lost. Not even in a token, but rather in a large extent, is the theme of struggle prominent in hell. This is unlike the struggle for freedom an apprentice daily dreams of, nor the order a democrat counts as being the best of humanity. It is the struggle for escape. This is what I mean. In one of the scenes I witnessed, I saw one of the fallen angels some metres away who presumably appeared to have been assigned the most callous and cruel duty. His visage was of angry look. His voice was husky. His command was masterful. His fury was ignited whenever the abyss happened to quake, such that the venous network of his forehead did budge out and his countenance wore mercilessness and vengeance.

The index of his many years of heartless service in that region of hell was reflective not only in his skin but in the whole of his teeth that have turned black completely. Besides, his two feet up to somewhere above his ankles were buried away in the heap of sooth that had gradually fallen off his skin and wings over the years, like when a tree sheds off her leaves in autumn. I couldn't view him beyond his knees; neither know the number of his toes. But in one of the glances I cast on his upper region, I discovered there were more than five fingers in each of his hands. One finger was like a chewing stick in length and as thick as a graduation scroll while each of his arms was weaved around by a bundle of muscles, such as is never in possession by any world heavy weight lifter in history. He stood rigidly in a point and was duty bound to pierce the new comers with a sharp and hot iron dagger in his hand. He didn't mean to kill anyway, but to place an immortal mark of welcome into the lasting sorrow on every new person just arriving. From this side, the victims strove and struggles violently to escape, panting and shivering before the pointed edge that sank deeply into the realm of veins and inflicted unspeakable pains that lasted for months.

I startled when I saw the back of some of these victims. While some were carrying unhealed peppering sores that oozed blood right inside the fire, those with fresh wounds kept on screaming and hissing like pine tree in agony. But with sweating face and blood stained dagger, the (demonic) angel was unreserved in his duty, not lending a sympathetic ear to these precious but lost souls.

In one of his mocking utterances, the (demonic) angel addressed a lady in utter despair, who was learned to have died as a petrol station attendant.

“If in life you spurned ‘strive to enter at the strait gate...’, should you here again say no to the command of the master (Satan) whose part you followed in life; whose interest you shared until death?”

After that statement, in rage he gripped his dagger and with thick biceps thrust cleaned the pointed edge into the ribs of the lady. Just as the iron was withdrawn as if it was a plug, her blood gushed out. Being in a state of coma, her screaming began to die away gradually as she helplessly sank into the flame.

Among several other things I heard the demon say was:

“Two possibilities exist in life. There abide good and bad; truth and error; past and present; life and death; reward and punishment. Two men strive to win a man, to rule a man: The Son of the Most High and our master. Two lifestyles are possible for embracing by man: living for the Holy one or living in opposite direction of the light. Be that as it may, no man is free; no son of a man is without a ruling power: either the dark one or the immaculate. But with us is the majority. To man the truth is bitter and the narrow road is rugged. Men tend to seek for ease, many can’t endure. Such are those who bathe my feet with tears. Though they plead, they only plead with the colony that can’t be forgiven and neither forgives any. Once here is forever here. Once in Celestial city is forever there, but only few have the courage it takes to go there and the whiteness of heart the city demands.”

Since the departure of the angel that brought me, thousands of people had entered through the same gate and trotted down into hell, but the place remained as spacious as ever.

While I was yet trapped down by this awful scene, I discover that one of the hell inmates was drawing a little bit closer to the bank. She crawled like a fly near the bound set between hell bank and the land. "A-ll-en, A-ll-en," shouted the lady.

I was shocked to the root to hear my name in hell. I didn't recognize on time who the person was, because the face was marred and disfigured by the fire; the skin was blackened by the flame and littered by sores.

"Who? Who? Who are you"? I asked with great inquisitiveness. She shouted again:

"A-ll-en Bamgbose. I am Rita; your mate in the Grammar School. O-o-oh I'm hungry, p-l-e-a-s-e help m-e-e..."

I was flabbergasted at seeing Rita in hell. Rita in hell? No! It must be a dream. But Rita died a good Christian! I soliloquized all these questions right on the same spot. To cut a long story short, human feelings gripped me and I thought I could help her out of that predicament. Thus, I took a step to move to her, but my legs were too heavy for me to lift. I looked around for my friendly angel again; he was nowhere to be found.

Rita, why are you here? You are a child of God, Why did you miss heaven? We organized concerts, carols, quiz competitions in our school fellowship and you didn't disappoint God. You were very good at sword drill and impromptu speech. "Why?" "How?" I sobbed out these statements.

"Yes, I did all that in the Grammar School, Allen," she replied “But, later in life and two months to my graduation in the University, I yielded to a sinful affair with a boy at home during a short break. I thought of repenting in the campus chapel when the school resumed. But on returning from home, I had a motor accident. The next thing I discovered was that I found myself in the gate over there and the angel asked me to go to the left which ends in this place,” She revealed.

“O-o-oh Rita, why did you allow this, after all the evangelism in the boarding house, choruses and prayer meetings? What were you doing till your flesh inflicted this temptation on you and conquered?” I asked with lament.

While I was lamenting over this tragic scene, the fire as red as it were, erupted like a volcano around the place she was; immediately, she sank. I was afraid of God right there. I didn't see Rita again throughout my vision.

THE REVELATIONS IN THE LIGHT OF GOD'S WORD

The small space available in this book does not give us enough latitude to present several other gruesome testimonies of those whom the Lord has allowed to see hell and whom He specifically sent back to go and report what they saw to earthmen, not minding whether earthmen would believe or not.

From their various testimonies, the key truths that emerge are as follows:

1. Man's soul is eternal. It's only the body of a person that dies; the soul never dies. The soul of man will live forever and ever, in either heaven or hell; there is no Purgatory.
2. Heaven is only for those who genuinely and fully accepted Christ, sought God day and night, and lived a holy life while on earth.

3. Hell fire is for all who refused Jesus Christ, for whatever reasons, and for all those who claimed to have accepted Jesus Christ, but believed false teachings, kept on committing open or secret sins, failed to confess and repent of their sins, or who truly did not believe and tremble at the Word of God.
4. All the scores of testifiers emphatically report that only few people make heaven. Their estimate is that only one in a thousand people that die actually make heaven. They also reveal that not up to ten percent of people that attend church actually make heaven. We also understand from other sources, from the revelations God showed them, that when the Rapture shall take place, there are whole churches where a single soul will not be raptured, not even the Pastor.
5. We are told that the soul of man in hell never dies; 2000 years in hell is considered a very short time, in the context of eternity. If the soul-flesh of man in hell is consumed by fire or worms, or are damaged and eaten up by demons, that soul-flesh would form back again, and the torment continues.
6. We learn that man's memory in hell is very sharp. It is said that man's memory in hell is several times stronger than his or her memory on earth. Man would remember all the evils he committed on earth, and all the opportunities he had to repent and fully turn to God, which he despised or squandered. It is this memory that causes the greatest pain, regret, weeping and gnashing of teeth in hell.

7. All people of all religions that reject Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour end up in hell. Jesus Christ is the only Saviour and Judge of all that ever came or would ever come to the world, because He alone shed His holy blood to redeem mankind from God's wrath. The only reason why Satan introduced other religions to the world is to deceive, destroy and send millions of people to hell fire. If you have not received Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour and you are reading this, please don't be poised to fight, argue and defend your religion. That will not help you in eternity. Humble yourself now and receive Jesus as your Lord and Saviour with all your heart. If you still have doubts, go on 7-day fasting, asking God to reveal to you if Jesus is really the only way to heaven. That's not too high a price to pay to ensure your eternal salvation and escape this horrible place called 'hell'. If you call upon Him with all your heart in humility, sincerity and truth, He will be merciful to you and reveal the truth to you in His own way.
8. Only few church-goers make heaven. Most people in the church also end up in hell fire, because of pride, secret sins, hypocrisy, believing false teachings and errors, doubt and unbelief, not seeking God daily in prayer and fasting, not paying tithes, going late to church, not preaching the gospel, not serving God, dressing like unbelievers with elaborate make-up and exposing their bodies, not practising what they read, hear and know, not confessing and repenting of their sins with great weeping and groaning, not trembling at the Word of God, not paying attention to every little detail of God's Word, particularly of the new testament, not confessing and repenting of their sins with weeping, groaning and broken heart, and turning away from those sins completely.

Only very few people realize that most of the systems of the world – entertainment, fashion, sports, media, politics and economy – are being controlled by Satan and his human agents, with the sole purpose of turning people's hearts away from God, filling the earth with sin, causing earthmen to pursue vanities and making human beings to compete among themselves for the destructive fantasies of this world. In eternity, Satan will have used these human agents of his to deceive and destroy many souls, while the human agents themselves will also discover that their master, Satan, has also deceived them and that he will torment and punish them in eternity beyond every human imagination, since Satan has no friend, and loves nobody. The Scripture reveals that, in the end time: “But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.” (II Tim.3:13)

In addition to the human agents that Satan currently uses to deceive the world and turn their hearts away from God, hordes of demons are also released on the earth every day (as confirmed by many of the accounts narrated above), saturating the atmosphere with sin, wickedness and darkness; suggesting sinful thoughts to the hearts and minds of men, and possessing human beings, hardening their hearts against God and using them to commit unimaginable evils on earth. In some extreme cases, we understand that some of these demons actually come to the earth as humans, putting on human flesh to commit strange atrocities. For these reasons, Satan is called: god of this world (II Cor.4:14), the Prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience (Eph.2:2), the deceiver that deceives the whole world (Rev.12:9). We are also warned for this reason not to love the world and things that are in the world:

Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever – I Jn.2:15

The desire and plan of God is that the heaven-bound children of God will only use the things of this world that are absolutely necessary for our existence, within the scope and provision of God's Word and moral principles, without seeking to conform to any worldly standard, and without seeking to please or compete with anybody.

But this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none, those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess, and those who use this world as not misusing it. For the form of this world is passing away – I Cor. 7:29-31

What the Scriptures say about God's Judgment and about Hell

Do the above revelations agree with the truth of God's scripture, the Bible? The answer is an absolute 'Yes'. Though God deliberately does not provide the fine details as He later gave to some of His prophets and prophetesses, we have enough scriptures to support the revelations they received.

We know from the Word of God that:

1. Only few people will make heaven – Matt. 7:13-14

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

2. Judgment will begin from the house of God and people that are considered righteous will be scarcely saved – I Pet.4:17-18
3. Many will strive to enter heaven but will not be able – Lk.13:23-30
4. A great minister of God can preach to others and himself become a castaway, except he subdues his flesh and examines himself every day – I Cor.9:24-27
5. A Christian can perform miracles and do wonders in the Name of the Lord and still miss heaven and become a castaway – Matt.7:21-24
6. The worms in hell never die and the fire is not quenched – Mk.9:42-48
7. No price is too high to pay to make heaven – Mt.5:27-30; Mk.9:42-48
8. It's a great and terrible loss, if a person has everything in this world and ends up in hell – Matt.16:24-26
9. The smoke of the torment of those in hell will ascend forever and ever, and they have no rest day or night – Rev.14:9-11
10. The whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments, for God will bring all souls to judgment, exposing their open and secret sins. We must also serve God with fear and trembling, trembling at the awesomeness of His Word – Eccl.12:13-14; Phil.2:13; Is.66:1-2

11. Without holiness, no man shall see the Lord. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God – Heb.12:14; Matt.5:8
12. Many that live a life of pleasure and liberty here on earth will end up in hell, and many that suffer here on earth but live for the Lord will end up in heaven – Lk.6:20-26; 16:19-26
13. People in hell wish those on earth would know what's waiting for the unrepentant sinner and turn to the Lord before it's too late – Lk.16:27-31
14. Sins we consider 'little' can lead a person to hell fire – Matt.5:20-30

People try to repent in hell but it will be too late. Repentance is only possible while we are here on earth. People in hell become automatic evangelists, wishing that they could somehow have a way of warning others who are still on earth, to repent, and escape the agony and curse of hell which they have foolishly and stubbornly brought upon themselves.

Even if the dead should rise, or God should allow some to see heaven and hell and come back to report to earthmen, many will not believe. Only some will believe. Decide now to be one of the few that will believe and totally turn to God through Christ Jesus.

Many rejoice for seeing a new year and they celebrate their birthdays with funfair. They do not realize that seeing a new year without living for Christ only brings a man or woman one year closer to his doomsday. There is nothing to rejoice for, here on earth, if one does not take each new day and each new year as a valued opportunity, given to man by God, to check his or her life, repent of his or her sins, and purify himself thoroughly through the Blood of Jesus and the Word of God. Each new day of a man on earth is a gracious privilege to seek God earnestly, so that God, in His mercy, will enable him to escape the great tribulation here on earth and the eternal horror of hell, and so that He may count us worthy to be raptured with Jesus when the trumpet shall sound and to live and reign with Jesus in His eternal Kingdom. In addition, God keeps you alive and well so that you can work for Him by preaching the gospel to sinners who don't know Him, and who don't know what is awaiting them in eternity, and so that you can use your other gifts and talents to work for God in your local church and in your environment. There is absolutely nothing to celebrate in this world outside God, and outside Christ.

Are you taking advantage of each new day, each new year to make peace with God, purify yourself, work for God and prepare for eternity? Don't be a fool; be wise unto salvation. Escape the eternal regret and sorrow that is coming upon the disobedient very soon.

UNDERSTANDING THE NATURE OF GOD'S JUDGMENT

Our God is a holy God, whose eyes cannot behold iniquity. He cannot reduce His standard of holiness for any reason. He will not find an average pass mark, in order to ensure that a large number of people make heaven, as in some earthly examinations. If it were possible for everybody on earth to turn away from God and disobey Him, He can destroy every human being on earth and decide His next line of action. We exist because of Him, He does not exist because of us. We are answerable to Him; He is answerable to no one. In the world of Noah, only eight souls were saved; in the cities of Sodom & Gomorrah, only 3 souls were saved.

Thank God that Jesus came to give us the power of salvation, to deliver us from the Penalty, Power and Presence of sin and to give us the new birth that will empower us to know, love, serve and please God, making us worthy to live and reign with Him forever and ever. I believe that millions of people who lived holy lives on earth are already in heaven, despite the fact that a much larger number are burning in hell.

Our God is a loving, good, merciful and patient God. He does not want any to perish. His heart breaks when people end up in hell through foolishness, ignorance, stubbornness and disobedience. Yet, He will never reduce His standard of holiness. He will not descend to our level of sin; we are the ones that must move up to His level of holiness and righteousness, made possible only through Christ Jesus, the Holy Spirit and the Word of God.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does *the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God.....He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.”-

Jn.3:16-21,36*

I have met several people who refuse to accept God’s standard of judgment. They seek to set for God what should be a fair standard of judgment. They want to determine what God can do or cannot do, what is fair or unfair as far as God’s judgment is concerned.

You often hear statements such as:

“Jesus cannot be the only way. What happens to people of other religions?”

“God is not so wicked as to send people to hell fire forever and ever.”

“God cannot send majority to hell fire” .

“God cannot send people to hell fire for such small sins as lying, indecent dressing, going regularly late to church, not paying tithe, or buying and selling on Sunday.”

These are laughable positions that come from feeble human reasoning. Yes, we know that God is good, kind, gracious and compassionate. But He is holy and He is Sovereign. He is transcendent and incomprehensible. I understand that even when we get to heaven, we will still continue to learn and understand deeper and deeper truths and revelations about God for millions of years in eternity. It is most foolish to use our little brain to judge God and tell Him what He can do and what He cannot do. He sets His standard of judgment for man, and man must fall in line without questioning, or he gets destroyed. He has clearly told us that His ways are far higher than our ways:

*When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly like you. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you
– Ps.50:21 (NIV)*

*Seek the Lord while He may be found,
Call upon Him while He is near.
Let the wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man his thoughts;
Let him return to the Lord,
And He will have mercy on him;
And to our God,
For He will abundantly pardon.
“For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways,” says the Lord.
“For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways,
And My thoughts than your thoughts –
Is.55:6-9*

God has however been kind enough to reveal to us what He expects from us and how we can walk and live both now and in eternity with Him. That's why Jesus makes it plain that there will be no sentiment in God's judgment, and that God will judge the world by His Word and not by any human standard. God expresses His love and goodness by making provision for the forgiveness of our sins when we confess and repent of them, and by giving us power to do His will if we humbly and persistently seek Him. This is the way He expresses His love, grace and mercy unto us. It is wickedness and rebellion for us to not want to change from our sinful ways, and yet we keep laying claim to the love and mercy of God.

Our God is a maximum God in His two extremes. His love is so good, amazing, pleasant and satisfying that it is beyond description. God's love is usually far above our understanding, expectation and worth that A.W. Tozer says it leaves us "confused and abashed". It is too much!

In the same way, His wrath, His anger, His judgment are too terrible that man would find it difficult to believe that God could be so hard. All the people that have been taken to hell have been completely stupefied and dumbfounded, not ever believing that God's eternal wrath and judgment could be so horrible, so horrendous, beyond description or imagination. These His two extremes are repeatedly demonstrated in His Word.

It is also important that Pastors, General Overseers, Evangelists, Missionaries and other ministers of the gospel should stop thinking that they are so big that they cannot go to hell fire. The Bible is so emphatic that God is no respecter of persons, that there is no sentiment in God's standard of judgment, that only those who tremble at the Word of God and diligently work according to His commandments and precepts, seeking Him daily in humility, examining their lives daily and in the light of God's Word, have the chance of making heaven and escaping hell. All the revelations of people presented above show us that there are shocks in hell and that many Christian leaders and ministers that one does not expect to see in hell are actually there and many are sent into the fire of hell every day. Evangelist Abraham Yakubu, who has been taken to hell, told us in a Crusade that once a person dies, he will momentarily forget that he was ever a Pastor on earth. He is completely alone, waiting to face God's dreadful judgment.

What will help us and cause us to forever be in the good book of God is to meditate and live by the precepts of the following Scriptures, along with the other passages we have referred to in this book:

Lord, who may abide in Your tabernacle?

Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

He who walks uprightly,

And works righteousness,

And speaks the truth in his heart;

He who does not backbite with his tongue,

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

*Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;
In whose eyes a vile person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the Lord;
He who swears to his own hurt and does not change;
He who does not put out his money at usury,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things shall never be moved –
Ps. 15:1-5*

And if anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak – Jn. 12:47-50

As obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.” And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear – I Pet. 1:15-17

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire – Heb. 12:28-29

For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? Now “If the righteous one is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?” – I Pet. 4:17-18

God’s Grace & His Judgment

Some may wonder where we are to place God’s grace in all of this, if so many people will miss heaven and go to hell, including many in the church.

The grace of God and the judgment of God are not contradictory, for there is no contradiction in God at all. The grace of God in Christ Jesus is what helps us to know the truth (including the truths you are reading in this booklet); it is the grace of God that helps us to find Jesus and repent of our sins. It is only by grace that God forgives us our sins and accepts us in the beloved.

The Bible is however very clear and emphatic that God expects holiness and purity from His children, that the grace of God must not be an excuse to commit sin, and that grace is not only manifested in unmerited favour and forgiveness of sins; much more importantly, grace is divine enablement and divine empowerment to say ‘No’ to sin.

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me – I Cor. 15:9-10

For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope—the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good – Tit. 2:11-14 (NIV)

While grace will make God to forgive you your sins when you repent of them, much more than that, the grace of God will help and strengthen you to overcome sin, in the extent to which you are hungry and thirsty for righteousness and earnestly seek Him. Most times, that experience of progressive sanctification will come after serious, persistent and agonizing cry to God, seeking Him with all your heart to purify and sanctify you. If you are already satisfied with a life of continual sinning and confessing, and going back to sin again, based on a misunderstanding and misappropriation of grace, you will never agonize in prayer and in studying the Word of God until God, by His grace, sets you free from the bondage of sin. Such an individual will continue in sin in the name of grace.

It is sad that many church-goers will end up in hell fire because of a misunderstanding and misappropriation of the grace of God. That will not be your portion in Jesus Name!

Repentance – The Only Way Out

The only way to please God and make heaven is for an individual to know, recognize, acknowledge and be penitent for his or her sins, confessing them before God, and calling on God for grace, mercy and forgiveness through the Blood that Jesus Christ shed for all people on the Cross of Calvary.

After your contrition and after the confession of your sins, you must repent, stop and turn away from all the sins you have committed and confessed. No one is going to hell simply because he or she has committed some sins; if it were so, all of us without exception would have ended up in hell fire, for all of us have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Rom.3:23). People who are going to hell will end up in that place because they fail to acknowledge their sins before God, ask for forgiveness through the Blood of Jesus Christ and actually repent and turn away from those sins.

At this point, it does not matter how much sins you may have committed and how terrible those sins are. If you acknowledge these sins and are willing to stop and turn away, receiving Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour and believing that He died for your salvation, the Lord will forgive you completely and cleanse you from all unrighteousness.

“Son of man, give the people of Israel this message: You are saying, ‘Our sins are heavy upon us; we are wasting away! How can we survive?’ As surely as I live, says the Sovereign Lord, I take no pleasure in the death of wicked people. I only want them to turn from their wicked ways so they can live. Turn! Turn from your wickedness, O people of Israel! Why should you die?- Ez.33:10-11, NLT

Knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.” For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance – II Pet.3:3-9

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness – I Jn. 1:8-9

WISDOM UNTO SALVATION

If you are yet to give your life to Christ genuinely, don't wait till tomorrow, do it now. Tell God you are a sinner and that you have not sought God or lived for the truth. Believe that Jesus died for you; confess your sins to Him now, ask for His forgiveness and mercy so that He would forgive you of all your sins and cleanse you completely. Invite His Holy Spirit into your heart, so that He would give you the power to seek God, know God and live a holy life, which is pleasing unto the Lord. When you do all these, you become born again; you become a new person. Old things pass away; all things become new.

That decision, important as it is, is not sufficient in itself for you to make heaven. It is the beginning of a long journey to heaven. You have a lot to learn from God; there is a lot He still wants to do in your life, and you have great latitude for spiritual growth and for progressive purification (sanctification). You must therefore:

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

1. Get a copy of the Bible and read at least one chapter every day. The Word of God is spirit and life; it is alive and powerful. It will purify you, strengthen your faith, help you to know God and His ways better. As physical food keeps you strong and healthy physically, the Word of God in the Bible is the spiritual food that will keep you strong and healthy spiritually.
2. Pray to God in the Name of Jesus every day. We are told to pray without ceasing every day so that we can receive grace and strength from the Lord and so that we can defeat the devil, in all his attacks and antics.
3. Become an active, faithful and committed member of an evangelical, Pentecostal, Bible-believing church not far from where you live. There is no way you will be able to run this race victoriously to the end without fellowshiping regularly with other believers, under God's powerful corporate anointing. The church is also an avenue for you to serve God and help others to know and enjoy God. God has assignment for you, in the environment of the church.

If you are already a Christian, you have clearly seen now that going to church, speaking in tongues, praying and claiming the promises of God are good but they are not enough at all, for one to make heaven and escape hell. You must carefully observe and do the following:

1. Read and study the Word of God systematically every day, meditating carefully on every phrase and word, with the intent and determination to diligently obey it and live by its precepts.
2. Don't go to any church where they preach only faith, prosperity, motivation and success in this world, but do not prepare your soul for eternity. Most of such churches are only interested in your money; they are making a merchandize of your soul. Look for a church where the total, complete and balanced truth of the Word of God is preached, and where you will regularly hear about heaven, hell and eternity, with the weighty emphasis these subjects deserve, while other principles of success and victory here on earth are also taught.
3. Live a holy life; run away from every sin, open or secret, big or small. If out of ignorance or weakness you fall into any sin, repent immediately and don't go back into those sins. Don't sleep over any sin that you do not confess or repent of. The Lord or the end can come at any time.

4. Don't call any area of your life 'my weakness', excusing and defending sin without totally repenting of those sins. Fast, pray, weep, groan and seek God earnestly until He delivers you and sets you free from every sin and moral weakness, working in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

5. Shun every form of worldliness in speech, dressing, leisure, use of your time, or in your business. Watch your speech, watch your dressing, and watch whom you move with. Don't foolishly follow the trend of the world or seek to be loved and accepted by the world. Most of the people you see around you will end up in hell, because they hate the truth and love to please themselves, not God. Don't copy them; don't follow them. Don't allow anything – sports, internet, business or relationship - to take over your heart, time, affection or devotion. If you do, God will take it that you have an idol in your heart, and you cannot make heaven that way. Your love, commitment, passion and the attention you give unto God must be total and undivided. Remember that our God is a jealous God, who wants your all. Remember also that making heaven is a serious warfare and only few will make it.

6. Without giving excuses, you must spend many hours every day studying the Word of God, praying, cleansing your heart, worshipping God, studying and meditating on good Christian materials and literature and preparing for eternity. Without this, I tell you, you cannot make heaven or escape hell. The spiritual atmosphere we live in is so dark, defiled, saturated with demons and satanic agents and forces. We are also so easily prone to the sins of lust, anger, pride, vanities, worldliness, fear, worry, anxiety, doubt, unbelief, unforgiving spirit and careless talking, that it is so easy to commit sin and so difficult to live a holy life. The only solution is for each Christian to withdraw from the world as often as possible and spend quality time in God's presence every day. If you don't want to go to hell, don't give your job as an excuse for not seeking God and spending time with Him on a daily basis. Rearrange your time, cut off all unnecessary things, wake up in the night, maximize your week-end. If all of these are impossible, then change the job, at all costs, so that it will not lead you to hell; for what shall it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and loses his soul.

7. Pay your tithe regularly, don't work on Sunday, avoid buying and selling on Sunday as much as possible, unless the need is sudden and absolutely inevitable. Don't go late to church. Don't make phone calls while service is going on. Give your total attention to God and to the service while you are in church. The materials you will see in the websites provided at the end of this booklet will show you that, for reasons we cannot fully understand, Jesus Christ takes these issues very seriously, and many Christians are in hell for failing in these areas.

8. Repent, do restitution and run away from other sins that are common among Christians, such as: cheating in examinations, declaring and using a wrong age, making vows and pledges and failing to fulfill and redeem them, exaggeration, taking the money of our spouses or parents without telling them, and other such sins that we commit, take for granted and forget, not knowing that heaven keeps the record and that they will prevent one from making heaven, except we genuinely repent and stop committing such sins.
9. Don't be stubborn; don't always be self-defensive. Don't resent correction. See anybody that corrects and reproofs you as your friend and not your enemy. Amend all necessary areas in your life, after being taught, reproved and corrected. That's the way to spiritual growth. That's the way to make heaven.

10. Judge yourself every day. Set high standard for yourself. Examine your life everyday and promptly effect all necessary changes, in genuine and total repentance. Don't take the fact that God is blessing and using you as consolation that your life is right with God. God causes His rain to fall both on the righteous and the wicked, and His gifts and callings are without repentance. Actually check your life against the explicit Word and commandment of God all the time, and also listen to the Holy Spirit within you. Don't grieve Him; don't quench Him, so that He will not stop speaking to you.

11. Accept God's forgiveness and forgive yourself after you have genuinely repented. Forgive the past and move on. God does not keep record of your past sins, once you have confessed those sins and have genuinely repented of them, turning away from them (Prov.28:13; Is.43:18,19,25; 44:22; Phil.3:13-14; I Jn.1:8-9).

BELIEVE YOU WILL MAKE HEAVEN

All we have said above is the truth. Some claim we should not talk about hell, so that it does not drive fear into people; but we have seen many Scriptures above where God commands us to fear Him, to serve God with fear and trembling both in the Old and New Testament. Some say the word 'fear' should be understood as respecting and honouring God. That is trivializing and watering down the Word of God, for our convenience and comfort. To fear God means to actually fear Him because He knows all our sins in details, because of the terror of His judgment and because of His very high standard of holiness.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

*Fear God and keep His commandments,
For this is man's all.*

For God will bring every work into judgment,

Including every secret thing,

Whether good or evil – Eccl. 12:13-14

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

And I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. "But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, fear Him!" – Lk. 12:4-5

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire – Heb. 12:28-29

As we set our hearts to fear God, however, we should not go to the other extreme, whereby we lose hope or think that we cannot make heaven because the standard of God is too high. Once you are zealously and wholeheartedly playing your part, once you seek Him day and night and you have wholeheartedly set your heart upon Him to diligently obey Him, you must believe that you will make heaven. You must believe that God Almighty will help you and uphold you to make heaven and to stand firm to the end. He is the one that saved you, and He will cleanse, keep and preserve you blameless till the end.

You must trust in Him; you must trust His love, wisdom, grace and power to keep you holy and make you worthy to live and reign with Him forever. It is not God's will to drive the fear that causes hopelessness, gloom and resignation into our hearts. The fear of God that God commands is the healthy fear that will make us to watch our lives, stay close to Him and depend on Him every day. The fear of man drives that man away from the object of fear, away from the person he fears; the fear of God on the other hand should drive us closer to God, propelling us to seek to maintain an intimate relationship with Him every day. As we stay close to Him, we remind Him daily that we totally look up to Him to keep us strong and make us worthy of heaven, and that without Him we can do nothing.

Draw strength from the following scriptures; they will keep your faith strong and assure you of daily victorious living unto the end.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying: "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words." Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the wheel. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make. Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying: "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter?" says the Lord. "Look, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel! - Jer.18:1-6

Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." And they were greatly astonished, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?" But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible." – Mk.10:23-27

"Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom - Lk.12:32

Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name, they bear witness of Me. But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, and I give them eternal life, and

they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand. I and My Father are one". – Jn.10:25-30

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast – Eph.2:8-9

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good testimony. ....By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, and was not found, because God had taken him; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him – Heb.11:1-2, 5-6

Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them – Heb. 7:25

HELL IS FAR MORE TERRIBLE THAN YOU THINK

Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it – I Thes. 5:23-24

Having done all the above, and once you ensure you are doing them consistently and steadfastly, believe God that you will make heaven and not go to hell, that God will uphold and help you to escape hell and make heaven, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom.
