

A REJECTED LOVE GIFT

“And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.” – John 3: 19

A son had become estranged from his parents, and ceased to correspond with, or recognize them. His mother, according to her custom, had a little gift sent to him on his birthday. But instead of accepting it, and returning thanks, he packed it up, and sent it back to her without a word. That was the greatest grief of all to his mother; it broke her heart. God’s love despised and His love-gift rejected, is the greatest sin, and will bring the heaviest judgment.

God does not condemn man for sinning. Man is only condemned for shunning God’s love and rejecting Jesus Christ, God’s perfect gift and remedy for sin. Anyone, any day, anywhere who truly repents and accepts Jesus Christ as his or her personal Lord and Saviour will definitely receive God’s pardon. The question then is, “Will you be that one, today and right here? Your answer to that question is what matters most; after all, heaven or hell is as far as your answer. Heaven is waiting and hell is watching too. May you have the courage to decide for God and choose Christ today! God bless you.
