DON'T TRUST YOUR FEELINGS

“Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.” - Psalm 119: 105

On July 31, 1964, Country music star Jim Reeves and his piano player Dean Manuel took off from Batesville, Arkansas. Reeves was piloting his Beechcraft Bonanza and his destination was Nashville, Tennessee. He was qualified only to fly during clear weather, but a storm quickly rose and dark skies and rain buffeted the small airplane.

Then about 5 p.m., the plane disappeared from airport radar, just ten miles from Nashville. Two days later, the wreckage and Reeves and Manuel's remains were found in a heavily wooded area.

The official report said that pilot error was the cause of the accident. Reeves had probably experienced vertigo during the storm. Vertigo is the disorienting sensation caused by an imbalance to the inner ear caused by the person leaning in one direction. While in the dark clouds and buffeting storm, Reeves could not discern what was up or what was down. His inner ear probably gave him the sensation that he was in a turn and he overcompensated by turning the aircraft in the opposite direction. If Reeves had been trained to fly on instruments, he would have been able to overcome this false feeling of orientation.

God has given us an instrument to live by - HIS WORD. We are not to trust in our own feelings or to make decisions “by the seat of our pants.” Today in prayer, thank God for His Word, that it can be trusted and it can preserve us from all types of danger.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

O WORSHIP THE KING

1. O worship the King, all glorious above,
And gratefully sing, His power and His love
Our Shield and Defender, The Ancient of Days,
Pavilioned in splendour And girded with praise

2. O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light Whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath The deep thunderclouds
form,
And dark is His path On the wings of the storm

3. Thy bountiful care What tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, It shines in the light;
It streams from the hills, It descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils In the dew and the rain

4. Frail children of dust, And feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust Nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! How firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend

“For Thou art my Lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will lighten my darkness.” – 2Samuel 22: 29 “God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God.” – Psalm 62: 11 “Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” – Psalm 119: 105 “And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.” – Isaiah 30: 21

Happy New Month!

Hymn 2

JESUS I MY CROSS HAVE TAKEN

1. Jesus I my cross have taken, All to leave and follow Thee, Destitute, despised, forsaken, Thou from hence my all shalt be. Perish ev'ry fond ambition, All I've sought, or hoped, and known; Yet how rich is my condition! God and heav'n are still my own.

2. Take my soul, Thy full salvation; Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care: Joy, to find in every station Something still to do or bear, Think what Spirit dwells within thee; What a Father's smile is thine; What thy Savior died to win thee; Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

3. Man may trouble and distress me; 'Twill but drive me to Thy breast; Life with trials hard may press me; Heaven will bring me sweeter rest: Oh 'tis not in grief to harm me, While Thy love is left to me, Oh, 'twere not in joy to charm me, Were that joy unmixed with Thee

4. Haste then on from grace to glory, Arm'd by faith, and wing'd by prayer; Heaven's eternal day's before thee; God's own hand shall guide thee there, Soon shall close thy earthly mission; Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days, Hope shall change to glad fruition, Faith to sight, and prayer to praise
