A CLOUD OF WITNESSES

Hebrews 12: 1 tells us that the world is encircled by a cloud of witnesses who are with Christ in glory. What does this multitude of heavenly witnesses have to say to the present world? We live in a generation that is far wicked more than Noah's. What can these witnesses say to a human race whose sins exceed even that of Sodom?

Our day is one of great prosperity. Our economy has been blessed, yet our society has become so immoral, violent and anti-God that even secularists bemoan how far we have fallen. Christians everywhere wonder why God has delayed his judgments on such a wicked society. We who love Christ may not understand why such gross evil is allowed to continue. But the cloud of heavenly witnesses understands. They don't question the mercy and patience that God has shown.

The Apostle Paul is among that cloud of witnesses, and he bears witness to God's unlimited love for even "the chiefest of sinners." Paul's life and writings tell us that he cursed the name of Christ. He was a terrorist, hunting down God's people and dragging them off to be jailed or killed. Paul would say to us that God is being patient with this present generation because there are still many people like him, who sin in ignorance. The apostle Peter is also among the cloud of witnesses, and he too understands why God is so patient. Peter's life and writings remind us that he denied Jesus, swearing he never knew Him. God withholds His judgment because there are multitudes still that curse and deny Him, just as Peter did. The Lord won't give up on them, just as He never gave up on Peter. There are many like him whom Christ still prays for.

As we consider this cloud of witnesses, see the faces of former drug addicts and alcoholics, former prostitutes and homosexuals, former gangsters and drug pushers, former terrorists, murderers and wife-beaters, former infidels and pornography addicts - multitudes whom society had given up on. They all repented and died in the arms of Jesus, and now they are witnesses to the mercy and patience of a loving Father. I believe all of these would say, in one unified witness, that Jesus didn't judge them before they received His mercy. God still loves this mad, immoral world. May He help us to love the lost as He does! And may we pray to have the love and patience He is showing the world right now.

LIVING BELOW

1. Living below in this old sinful world
Hardly a comfort can afford
Striving alone to face temptation sore
Where could I go but to the Lord?

CHORUS:

*Where could I go? Where could I go?
Seeking a refuge for my soul
Needing a friend to save me in the end
Where could I go but to the Lord?*

2. Neighbours are kind I love them
everyone
We get along in sweet accord
But when my soul needs manna from above; Where could I go but to the Lord?

Hymn 2

WHEN WE WALK WITH THE LORD

1. When we walk with the Lord in the light of His Word, what a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will, He abides with us
still, and with all who will trust and obey

CHORUS:

*Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus but to trust and obey*

2. Not a shadow can rise; not a cloud in the skies,
But His smile quickly drives it away;
Not a doubt nor a fear, not a sigh nor a tear,
Can abide while we trust and obey

3. Not a burden we bear, not a sorrow we share,
But our toil He doth richly repay;
Not a grief, nor a loss, Not a frown, nor a cross,
But is blest if we trust and obey

4. But we never can prove the delights of His love, until all on the altar we lay;
For the favour He shows, And the joy He bestows, are for them who will trust and obey

5. Then in fellowship sweet We will sit at His feet, or we'll walk by His side in the way;
What He says we will do, Where He sends, we will go Never fear, only trust and obey
