MOVE BEYOND YOUR FAILURE

Too many people allow the past to paralyze them. Even Christians who know what the Bible says about forgiveness and redemption often disqualify themselves after they experience a disappointing failure.

Such failures come in many forms: A messy divorce, a wayward child or one on drugs, an out-of-wedlock pregnancy, a failed examination or business venture, a church split that results in broken relationships. Such tragedies tend to leave a dent on people's souls. And society – along with the church – often stigmatizes people when they go through such experiences.

Yet this is a time when God is restoring the hearts of His people and preparing us to cross over into our inheritance. As a part of this, He is removing the reproaches of the enemy that have held us to our past and hindered our futures.

When Israel was crossing the Jordan into their promised land, the Lord said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you" (Joshua 5: 9, NKJV). He is speaking the same to us today!

Reproach comes in many forms: Reproach of barrenness, reproach of widowhood, reproach of failure, reproach of defeat, reproach of poverty, etc. However, the truth is that with God's help, all these reproaches can be rolled away.

Once our eyes are opened to this reality then, it's easy for our reproach to be rolled away through the promises of God in His word. Before Israel could cross over the Jordan, they had to be circumcised and the Lord rolled away the reproach of their former lives in Egypt (Joshua 5: 7-9).

In Christ, our hearts have already been spiritually circumcised, paving the way for our reproaches to be removed so we can move beyond our past into our inheritance. The cross guarantees our freedom from reproach (Galatians 3: 3-14). No curse or reproach can remain with us if we stand on the finished work of Christ, who became a reproach for us.

Hymn 1

FADING AWAY LIKE THE STARS

1. Fading away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glorious sun
Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done

CHORUS:

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered by what we have done
Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done*

2. Shall we be missed, though by others succeeded,
Reaping the fields we in springtime have sown?
Yes, but the sowers must pass from their labours,
Ever remembered by what they have done

3. Only the truth that in life we have spoken,
Only the seed that on earth we have sown;
These shall go onward when we are forgotten,
Fruits of the harvest and what we have done

4. Oh, when the Savior shall make up His jewels,
When the bright crowns of rejoicing are won,
Then shall His weary and faithful disciples
All be remembered by what they have done

Hymn 2

WE PLOUGH THE FIELDS

1. We plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land;
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand:
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain;
The breezes, and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain

CHORUS:

*All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above:
Then thank the Lord, oh, thank the Lord,
For all His love!*

2. He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far:
He paints the wayside flower;
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him;
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread

3. We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good:
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food
Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts;
And that which Thou desireth
Our humble, thankful hearts
