LIFTED FROM REPROACH

A reproach is a supernatural condition of shame or disgrace that settles into a person's spirit. Shent's problem was not just that he had fallen into sin. It was also the subsequent shame and despair that the enemy brought upon him – using God's people! Wesley acted quickly to ensure that Shent's reproach would be rolled away.

Reproach is a demonic device that leaves us feeling disgraced and unworthy. Psalm 44 reveals how reproach surrounds us with the lies of the enemy. The Psalmist said: "...my dishonour is continually before me, and the shame of my face has covered me, because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles, because of the enemy and the avenger" (verse 15-16).

Reproach changes the way we see ourselves. It establishes a mind-set of shame that is contrary to the way God sees us.

Like a heavy cloud, reproach blocks out the light and warmth of the father's love, leaving us in the chill of hopelessness. David's inner struggle with reproach broke his heart and drove him into depression: "You know my reproach, my shames, and my dishonour; my adversaries are all before You. Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness" (Psalm 69: 19-20)

Though many Christians struggle with reproach, the finished work of Jesus on the cross can roll these dark clouds away and release us into the fullness of our future. Freed from reproach, we gain new joy and faith. With the mind-set of shame broken and our hope renewed, we can cross over into our inheritance – but only if we first allow the Holy spirit to expose the lies and root them out with the promises of God.

Hymn 1

THRO' ALL THE CHANGING SCENES

1. Through all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.
2. Of His deliverance I will boast,
Till all that are distressed
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.
3. O magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt His name;
When in distress to Him I called,
He to my rescue came.
4. The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance He affords to all
Who on His succour trust.
5. O make but trial of His love;
Experience will decide
How blest they are, and only they,
Who in His truth confide.
6. Fear Him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear;
Make you His service your delight,
He'll make your wants His care.

Hymn 2

SING THE WONDROUS LOVE

1. Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace;
In the mansions bright and blessed,
He'll prepare for us a place

CHORUS:

*When we all get to heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory*

2. While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when travelling days are over,
Not a shadow not a sigh!

3. Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory,
Will the toils of life repay!
