CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS - Francis Walve

The historic record of the birth of Christ can be found in Matthew 1:18-25 and Luke 2:1-20. Unlike any other baby, the one born that night in Bethlehem was unique in all of history. He was not created by a human father and mother. He had a heavenly pre-existence (John 1:1-3, 14). He is God, the Son - Creator of the universe (Philippians 2:5-11).

This is why Christmas is called the incarnation, a word which means "in the flesh." In the birth of Jesus, the eternal, all-powerful and all-knowing Creator came to earth in the flesh.

Why would God do such a thing? Why would He come as a baby, instead of appearing in power and majesty? Why make Himself a true man and live among us, when He knew full well how terrible He would be treated? It was LOVE!

Man likes to major in minors. The birth of Christ is more important than the date on which it happened. What is important is to receive Christ as Lord and Saviour. The several different practices associated with Christmas has somewhat removed Christ from Christmas. This is sad.

Popular modern customs of the holiday include gift-giving, music, exchange of Christmas cards, church celebrations, a special meal and the display of various decorations; including Christmas trees, lights, garlands, mistletoe, nativity scenes, and holly. In addition, several figures, known as Saint Nicholas, Santa Claus and Father Christmas, among other names, are associated with bringing gifts to children during the Christmas season. Since gift-giving and many other aspects of the Christmas festival involve heightened economic activity among both Christians and non-Christians, the holiday has become a significant event and a key sales period for retailers and businesses. The economic impact of Christmas is a factor that has grown steadily over the past few centuries in many regions of the world.

Hymn 1

JOY TO WORLD!

1. Joy to the world! The Lord is come!
Let earth receive her king;
Let every heart, prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing (repeat)
And heaven, and heaven
And heaven sing

2. Joy to the earth! The Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods,
Rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy (repeat)
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy

3. No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found (repeat)
Far as, far as the curse is found

4. He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love, (repeat)
And wonders, and wonders of His love

Life Lessons

"The Son of God became the son of man to help us sons of men become the sons of God." – Anonymous "Jesus was God and man in one person, that God and man might be happy together again." ~ George Whitefield "All the Christmas presents in the world are worth nothing without the presence of Christ." –David Jeremiah "You can never truly enjoy Christmas until you can look up into the Father's face and tell Him you have received His Christmas Gift." – John R. Rice

Hymn 2

CHRISTIANS LIFT YOUR VOICE IN PRAISES

1. Christians lift your voice in praises on this memorable day. Sing in gladness, let your voices Sing all over vale and dale laud hosannas, laud hosannas sea and streams all join the strain.

2. Come ye people raise the anthem on the earth, and heaven above all creatures above and beneath Sing the praise in Jesus' name Praise Him, Praise Him! Praise to our King born this day.

3. Sing the praises all ye people though your skin be dark or light. Sing hosannas, laud hosannas Right round all the continents let every king, let every king prostrate fall to Christ our King

4. Sing hosannas, laud hosannas sing aloud and shout for joy. The stronghold of Satan vanquished For the woman's Seed appears Alleluia, Alleluia Great Redeemer, King of kings.

5. Seraph lift on high your voices with the Cherubs round the throne. Angels and the saints in heaven Join with them ye heav'nly hosts rejoice with us, rejoice with us Year of Jubilee is come.

6. Laud and honour to the Father; Laud and honour to the Son; Laud and honour to the Spirit Three-in-One and One-in-Three Hear us and accept our praises; Thine the glory, Thine alone.
