RAPTURE OF THE LIVING SAINTS

"Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed." 1Cor.15: 51.

Mystery but not mysterious: A mystery in Scripture is something that has been a secret or not known before but is now revealed.

We shall not all sleep: What an awesome announcement. Some of us will never die. Enoch and Elijah went to heaven without dying. All believers who are alive at the rapture, when Jesus comes, will go to heaven alive, without dying also.

We shall be changed: "For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who will transform the body of our humble state into conformity with the body of His glory, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself" – Phil.3:21.

No flesh and blood : "Now I say this, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable" (1Cor.15: 50). "The life of the flesh is in the blood" (Lev.17:11). Flesh and blood is perishable and not suited for heaven and eternity. It is a "terrestrial body" and we need a "celestial body" for heaven. Jesus said, "A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have" (Lk.24: 39). We won't have any blood in eternity for we will have a new, "celestial body" like angels.

No more tears: I'm sure most seniors with bifocal lens, false teeth and hearing aids will long for that new body. Praise God, there will be no more sickness, no more sorrows, no more tears, no more torments, no more sadness and no more madness! What a day that will be!

No more death: "For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality" (1Cor.15: 53). We shall not be like the Egyptian mummies, thousands of years old or like the bodies buried in the Catacombs in Rome. Thank God, the believer's body will be fashioned like the glorious body of Christ in all ramifications.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

HERE, O MY LORD

1. Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face
Here would I touch and handle things unseen
Here, grasp with firmer hand eternal grace
And all my weariness upon Thee lean
2. Here would I feed upon the bread of God
Here, drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven,
Here would I lay aside each earthly load
Here, taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven
3. Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is past and gone
The bread and wine remove, but Thou art here
Nearer than ever, still my shield and sun
4. Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love

Life Lessons

"Grace is but Glory begun, and Glory is but Grace perfected." - Jonathan Edwards "Grace is the very opposite of merit... Grace is not only undeserved favour, but it is favour, shown to the one who has deserved the very opposite." - Harry Ironside "But grace has only one direction that it can take. Grace always flows down." - Alexander Whyte "Grace, like water, flows to the lowest part." - Phillips Brooks

Hymn 2

LIKE THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

1. Like the woman at the well I was seeking
For things that could not satisfy;
And then I heard my Saviour speaking:
"Draw from My well that never shall run dry."

CHORUS:

Fill my cup, Lord; I lift it up, Lord!
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole!

2. There are millions in this world who are craving
The pleasure earthly things afford;
But none can match the wondrous treasure
That I find in Jesus Christ my Lord

3. So, my brother, if the things this world gave you Leave hungers that won't pass away; My blessed Lord will come and save you, If you kneel to Him and humbly pray:
