Looking Unto
Jesus

Jesus is our Lifeline

MOTTO:

"Looking unto Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith..." Hebrews 12: 2.

Sunday, May 3, 2020 Vol.15 No.18

WHERE ARE YOU LOOKING?

"Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me." Micah 7: 7

Do you know why we get discouraged or fearful? Do you know why we start murmuring and complaining? Do you know why we get discontent? It's because of where we are looking! When the Israelites looked at the giants that were in the land, they got fearful. When Peter looked at the winds and waves, he began to sink. When Lot's wife looked at the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, she became a pillar of salt. When the Israelite looked at the size of Goliath, their hearts sank in fear.

When we look at what we don't have instead of what we do have, we become ungrateful and begin to complain. The Israelites looked at the meat they didn't have and complained against God instead of looking at the manna that He gave them each day. When we look at our problem instead of looking to the "hills from whence cometh our help", we become fearful and faithless. When we look at the situation instead of looking to God, doubt and discouragement will come in. When we look at the mountain, we lose faith and give up.

When you read some of the Psalms of David, you'll read words of complaint and petition. He'll say things like - my enemies pursue me, they are stronger than I am, they are out to get me, my soul is cast down, I am in distress, my strength is gone, etc. But don't stop there he always goes on to say - but the Lord is my Helper, I will put my trust and faith in the Lord, the Lord will show me the way to take, He shall destroy my enemies, He is on my side. This is what I like most about David - one minute he may be acknowledging his problem, but the next minute he is acknowledging the power and provision of His God. You can tell when he turns from the problem to faith in God - there seems to be a 'dividing line'. Do you know what the difference was? He stopped looking in one direction and started looking in another. He stopped looking at his problem and started looking at God, greater than his problem.

Where are you looking - at the storm, at the giants, at the mountain or at the impossibility of the situation? Are you looking at the great I Am, the Healer, the Deliverer, the Redeemer, the Supplier? Where you look will determine if you are victorious or defeated. Where you look will either make you grateful or ungrateful, fearful or full of faith, discouraged or encouraged, depressed or at peace. It all boils down to what you are looking at - God or the problem.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

JESUS WE ASSEMBLED

1. Jesus we assembled, On this thy holy day;
And we surround thy throne, On this thy holy day.
Thou our friend in heavens, Our prayers shall come to thee.
Look after our spirits, On this thy holy day.
2. We must never backslide, On this thy holy day.
In reverence down we kneel, On this thy holy day.
Forgive our misconduct, Teach us that we may to know,
The right way to serve thee On this thy holy day
3. To thy words we pay heed, On this thy holy day,
Bless the word we receive, On this thy holy day.
Go with us when we go Pour gift of salvation
Deep into all our hearts On this thy holy day.

Life Pasture

"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." - John 3: 14-15 "Looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith..." - Hebrews 12: 2

Happy New Month!

Hymn 2

I SAW THE CROSS OF JESUS

1. I saw the cross of Jesus When burdened with my sin
I sought the cross of Jesus To give me peace within
I brought my soul to Jesus He cleansed it in His blood
And in the cross of Jesus I found my peace with God.
2. I love the cross of Jesus It tells me what I am
A vile and guilty creature Saved only through the Lamb
No righteousness nor merit No beauty can I plead
Yet in the cross I glory My title there I read.
3. I trust the cross of Jesus In every trying hour
My sure and certain refuge My never failing tower
In every fear and conflict I more than conqueror am
Living I'm safe or dying Thro' Christ the risen Lamb.
3. Safe in the cross of Jesus There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace unshaken Till with Him, ne'er to part
And then in strains of glory I'll sing His wondrous power
Where sin can never enter And death is known no more.
