LOOKING UNTO JESUS - J. C. Ryle

The Christianity which the world requires, and the Word of God reveals is of a very different stamp. It is useful every day. It is a healthy, strong, manly plant, which can live in every position, and flourish in every atmosphere, except that of sin. It is a religion which a man can carry with him wherever he goes, and never need leave behind him. In the army or in the navy, at the public school or at college, in the hospital-room or at the bar, on the farm or in the shop - true heaven-born Christianity will live and not die. It will wear, and stand, and prosper in any climate - in winter and in summer, in heat and in cold. Such a religion meets the needs of mankind.

But where is such true Christianity to be found? What are its special ingredients? What is the nature of it? What are its peculiar characteristics? The answer to these questions is to be found in the three words found in Hebrews 12: 2.

The secret of a vigorous, powerful, everyday Christianity is to be ever "Looking unto Jesus!" The glorious company of the Apostles, the noble army of martyrs, the saints who in every age and land have made their mark on mankind, and turned the world upside down - all, all have had one common mint-stamp upon them. They have been men who lived "Looking unto Jesus!" The expression of the text is one of those pithy golden sayings which stand out here and there on the face of the New Testament, and demand special attention. It is like "to me to live is Christ," "Christ is all and in all," "Christ, who is our life," "He is our peace," "I live by the faith of the Son of God." (Phil.1:21 ; Col.3:4, 11; Eph.2:14; Gal.2:20.) To each and all of these sayings, one common remark applies. They are rich in thought and food for reflection. They contain far more than a careless eye can see on the surface.

In the phrase "looking unto Jesus," it is useful and interesting to remember that the Greek word which, in our English Bible, we render "looking," is only found here in the New Testament. Literally translated it means "looking off," looking away from other objects to one, only one, and looking on that one with a steady, fixed, intent gaze. And the object we are to look at, you will observe, is a PERSON - not a doctrine, not an abstract theological dogma but a living Person; and that Person is Jesus the Son of God. How much matter for thought lies there!

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

I'M PRESSING ON THE UPWARD WAY

1. I'm pressing on the upward way,
New heights I'm gaining every day;
Still praying as I'm onward bound,
Lord plant my feet on higher ground.

CHORUS:

Lord, lift me up and let me stand,
By faith on heaven's table land,
A higher plane than I have found;
Lord, plant my feet on higher ground.

2. My heart has no desire to stay,
Where doubts arise and fears dismay;
Though some may dwell
Where these abound,
My prayer, my aim, is higher ground.

3. I want to live above the world,
Though Satan's darts at me are hurled,
For faith has caught the joyful sound,
The song of saints on higher ground

4. I want to scale the utmost heights,
And catch a glimpse of glory bright;
But still I'll pray till heaven I've found,
Lord, lead me on to higher ground.

Hymn 2

BE GONE, UNBELIEF

1. Be gone, unbelief, My Saviour is near,
And for my relief Will surely appear:
By prayer let me wrestle, And He will perform;
With Christ in the vessel, I smile at the storm.

2. Though dark be my way, Since He is my Guide,
'Tis mine to obey, 'Tis His to provide:
Though cisterns be broken, And creatures all fail,
The word He hath spoken Shall surely prevail

3. His love, in time past, Forbids me to think
He'll leave me at last In trouble to sink:
Each sweet Ebenezer I have in review
Confirms His good pleasure To help me quite through

4. Why should I complain Of want or distress,
Temptation or pain? - He told me no less;
The heirs of salvation, I know from His Word,
Through much tribulation Must follow their Lord

5. How bitter that cup No heart can conceive,
Which He drank quite up, That sinners might live!
His way was much rougher And darker than mine;
Did Christ, my Lord, suffer, And shall I repine?

6. Since all that I meet Shall work for my good,
The bitter is sweet, The medicine, food;
Though painful at present, 'Twill cease before long,
And then - oh, how pleasant The conqueror's song!
