REFUGE AND STRENGTH

Years ago a man called Dr Hobbs was out hunting with a friend in a wild area of country.

Suddenly the sky turned dark and lightning began to flash. It was obvious that a storm was brewing.

Dr. Hobbs had hunted in that area before, and he knew the terrain. He said to his friend, "Follow me."

They hurriedly made their way down a winding path. The thunder and lightning were becoming more intense, and the wind was getting higher—and the friend was getting more and more nervous.

Then Dr. Hobbs said to him, "In here!"—and they lunged into a cave, barely making it just before the storm unleashed all of its fury.

Dr. Hobbs said to his friend, "I wasn't worried, because I knew where to find refuge."

So too, we will not fear, because we know where to find refuge, in God.

Where can you run to, when everything around you is being shaken?

When you face the full brunt of the storm?

When we encounter times of great shaking and turmoil it helps to know we stand on solid ground.

Again, during an earthquake, a few years ago, the inhabitants of a small village were very much alarmed.

One old woman, whom they all knew, was surprisingly calm and joyous. At length, one of them said to her, "Mother, are you not afraid?"

"No, she replied, I rejoice to know that I have a God who can shake the world."

We can find refuge in the heart of God.

We can know His power is for us, not against us.

His resources are boundless.

Whatever is going on around us we have His assurance. He is our source of peace.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS, LIVING STILL

1. Faith of our fathers, living still
In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word

CHORUS:

Faith of our fathers! Holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death

2. Our fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free;
And blest would be their children's fate,
Though they, like them, should die for thee

3. Faith of our fathers! God's great power
Shall soon all nations win for thee;
And through the truth that comes from God
Mankind shall then indeed be free

4. Faith of our fathers! We will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach thee, too, as love knows how,
By kindly words and virtuous life:

"When we are powerless to do a thing, it is a great joy that we can come and step inside the ability of Jesus" - Corrie Ten Boom
"Any refuge other than God is probably something that I should seek refuge from rather than seek refuge in." — Craig D. Lounsbrough
"If you look at the world, you'll be distressed. If you look within, you'll be depressed. If you look at God you'll be at rest." - Corrie Ten Boom

Jesus Is Our Lifeline

Hymn 2

FOR MERCIES COUNTLESS AS THE SANDS

1. For mercies, countless as the sands
Which daily I receive
From Jesus, my Redeemer's hands,
My soul what canst thou give?

2. Alas, from such a heart as mine,
What can I bring Him forth?
My best is stain'd and dyed with sin
My all is nothing worth.

3. Yet this acknowledgement I'll make
For all He has bestow'd
Salvation's sacred cup I'll take,
And call upon my God

4. The best return for one like me,
So wretched and so poor,
Is from His gifts to draw a plea,
And ask Him still for more.

5. I cannot serve Him as I ought,
No works have I to boast;
Yet would I glory in the thought
That I shall owe Him most
