FRIENDSHIP WITH GOD - Jack Hayford

We can come to know friendship with God not only through salvation in Jesus Christ, but also in our day-to-day experiences. We must start of course by coming to Christ and receiving His salvation, but we can also learn to walk with God in friendship and relationship. This is established when we have both been born again and are also walking with Him. Jesus had walked with his disciples for three years when one day He said to them, "No longer do I call you servants... but I have called you friends" (John 15:15). The Lord Jesus calls us to walk with Him in that relationship, yet everything in our lives seems to rebel against it. There are three primary things at work against our having a confident relationship with God:

The Absence of A Role Model: Many precious people had no one in their formative years to model how a person in a confident relationship with God should live. They've seen authority figures fail. There may have been fathers or pastors who violated their trust, leaving them with a negative rather than a positive role model. Or possibly there were models, but they weren't close enough for us to really observe their character. When dear ones haven't had that confident walk with God demonstrated to them, they have no framework to respond to life's situations. A coach or a role model is someone who shows you how it's done.

The Presence of Corruption: More than ever, we are surrounded by the lewd, the corrupt and the foul. Billboards along the street are indecent, obscenity is the norm rather than the exception in popular culture, and profanity often permeates work places and schools. Everything about life is surrounded by corruption, and it works against our being a person who walks with God. We may feel like Isaiah who said, "I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips" (Isaiah 6:5). The corrupt triggers our sense of unworthiness and inadequacy, and it affects our ability to walk as a friend of God.

The Consciousness of Our Own Failures: There is not one of us who hasn't sinned. Our sins may have been very private or very public, but we all have shortcomings and failures. The impact of those things, once they lay hold of your mind is pervasive. We may have repented and received forgiveness, but still find ourselves unable to cleanse our minds of the recollection of those scenes that have riveted themselves into place. Because of that, there is a lack of conviction in our own assurance toward God.

Friendship with God is the starting place. Friendship with God is a viable option. It's a possibility we can walk into with real confidence. God ordained it and Jesus paid for it. So lift your hands with me and praise the Lord for the confidence of forgiven sin and the assurance that we can walk with God as friends in holiness.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

WE PLOUGH THE FIELDS

1. We plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land;
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand:
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain;
The breezes, and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain

CHORUS:

All good gifts around us

Are sent from heaven above:

*Then thank the Lord, oh, thank the Lord,
For all His love!*

2. He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far:
He paints the wayside flower;
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him;
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread

3. We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good:
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food
Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts;
And that which Thou desireth
Our humble, thankful hearts

Life Lessons

"God doesn't want us to know Him in a stuffy religious way. He wants connection, intimacy, and friendship." - Anonymous "Every friendship with God and every love between Him and a soul is the only one of its kind." - Janet Erskine Stuart "For prayer is nothing else than being on terms of friendship with God." - Teresa of Avila "Friendship that lasts always has its roots in God." - Anonymous

Jesus Is Our Lifeline

Hymn 2

MY HOPE IS BUILT ON NOTHING LESS

1. My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name

CHORUS:

*On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand
All other ground is sinking sand (repeat)*

2. When darkness veils His lovely face,
I rest on His unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale
My Anchor holds within the veil

3. His oath, His covenant, His blood
Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay

4. When He shall come with trumpet sound
O may I then in Him be found,
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne
