A CRIMINAL GOES FREE - Elizabeth Price

The death penalty operated for certain crimes under the law of Moses. No reprieves, no mitigating circumstances, no getting off because of a past good record. You break, you pay, and saying sorry did not change things.

God has not changed. God never changes, "with him there is no variation, no play of passing shadows," (James 1: 17). So all my best does not get me off for good behavior. On the scale of eternity, I am still under the penalty of death.

Unless the lawgiver himself acquits, his law must stand. And Luke says he acquits. He has not changed the criteria, he simply sent someone else to take my place under the death penalty. The death penalty still operated, but not on me. And I can't believe it even though I am told it is true. I just can't believe it, it is too good to be true.

The only thing it requires to move it into operation is that I come face to face with the reality of God, and the reality of God is that he appointed a substitute for me. If I will just feebly grasp that Jesus was for real and that he justifies the ungodly, I have it all: Perfect forgiveness, perfect peace. It is that easy.

I have the same criminal record as a lot of other people I meet. I am weak, pathetic, unlovely, not at all like God, and most of my heart, mind, soul and strength is directed everywhere but at God. Nobody would ever recommend me for pardon but there it is, I am acquitted of everything for which there was no acquittal under divine law.

'There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus,' - Romans 8: 1. "It is through him that everyone who has faith is acquitted of everything for which there was no acquittal under the law of Moses." - Acts 13: 39.

In acquitting me, God does not break his own law, he puts all the guilt and punishment on the substitute, and he whispers to me in the depths of my despair, "You're free." Praise God!

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

WHERE WILL YOU SPEND ETERNITY

1. Where will you spend eternity?
This question comes to you and me!
Tell me, what shall your answer be
Where will you spend eternity?
2. Many are choosing Christ to-day,
Turning from all their sins away;
Heaven shall their happy portion be:
Where will you spend eternity?
3. Leaving the strait and narrow way,
Going the downward road to-day,
Sad will the final ending be
Lost through a long eternity!
4. Repent, believe this very hour,
Trust in the Savior's grace and power;
Then shall your joyous answer be,
Saved through a long eternity!

Life Pasture

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." - John 8: 32 "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." - John 8: 36 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." - 2 Corinthians 3: 17

Happy New Month!

Hymn 2

I HEARD AN OLD, OLD STORY

1. I heard an old, old story, How a Savior came from glory,
How He gave His life on Calvary To save a wretch like me;
I heard about His groaning, Of His precious blood's atoning,
Then I repented of my sins And won the victory

CHORUS:

*O victory in Jesus, my Saviour, forever,
He sought me and bought me
With His redeeming blood;
He loved me ere I knew Him,
And all my love is due Him,
He plunged me to victory
Beneath the cleansing flood*

2. I heard about His healing, Of His cleansing pow'r revealing,
How He made the lame to walk again And cause the blind to see;
And then I cried, "Dear Jesus Come and heal my broken spirit,"
And somehow Jesus came and bro't To me the victory

3. I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory,
And I heard about the streets of gold Beyond the crystal sea;
About the angel singing And the old redemption story,
And some sweet day I'll sing up there The song of victory
