HELPING OTHERS

When a newspaper reporter interviewed a farmer who grew award-winning corn, each year he entered his corn in the state fair, it was revealed that the farmer shared his corn seed with his neighbours. Perplexed, the reporter asked, "How can you afford to share your best corn seed with your neighbours when they are entering their corn in competition with yours each year?"

The farmer smiled knowingly and explained, "The wind picks up pollen from the ripening corn and swirls it from field to field. If my neighbours grow inferior corn, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of my corn. So If I am to grow good corn, I must help my neighbours grow good corn."

Brothers and sisters, and so it is with our lives! Those who want to live meaningfully and well must help enrich the lives of others. For the value of a life, is measured by the lives it touches. And those who choose to be happy must help others find happiness, for the welfare of each is bound up with the welfare of all. Call it power of collectivity. Call it a principle of success. Call it a law of life.

The fact remains, "None of us truly wins, until we all win." In life, when you help the people around you to be good, you surely become the best. Always bear in mind that "Real happiness is helping others. Live and let's live.

Hymn 1

MUST I GO AND EMPTY HANDED?

1. Must I go – and empty-handed?
Thus my dear Redeemer meet?
Not one day of service give Him,
Lay no trophy at His feet?

CHORUS:

*Must I go – and empty-handed?
Must I meet my Saviour so?
Not one soul with which to greet Him?
Must I empty-handed go?*

2. Not at death I shrink or falter,
For my Saviour saves me now;
But to meet Him empty-handed,
Thought of that now clouds my brow

3. Oh, the years of sinning wasted,
Could I but recall them now;
I would give them to my Saviour,
To His will I'd gladly bow

4. Up, ye saints, arouse, be earnest!
Up and work while yet 'tis day;
Ere the night of death o'ertake you,
Strive for souls while yet you may

Hymn 2

FADING AWAY LIKE THE STARS

1. Fading away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glorious sun
Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling, Only remembered by what we have done

CHORUS:

*Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered by what we have done
Thus would we pass from the earth and its
toiling, Only remembered by what we have done*

2. Shall we be missed, though by others succeeded, Reaping the fields we in springtime have sown? Yes, but the sowers must pass from their labours, Ever remembered by what they have done

3. Only the truth that in life we have spoken,
Only the seed that on earth we have sown;
These shall go onward when we are forgotten,
Fruits of the harvest and what we have done

4. Oh, when the Savior shall make up His jewels,
When the bright crowns of rejoicing are won,
Then shall His weary and faithful disciples
All be remembered by what they have done
