THE JOY OF LISTENING

It was Johnny's turn to play the game. With a little skip, he walked into the center of the circle and allowed his friends to tie a handkerchief around his eyes. The world instantly disappeared into darkness. He couldn't see the beautiful trees or flowers anymore but he could still hear.

He heard the voices of his friends shouting instructions as they attempted to navigate him through the course. One told him to walk more to the right another yelled to go left. Johnny felt like he was moving in circles. He was trying so desperately to go in the right direction. Yet it seemed like the more he tried, the more he failed...

Johnny burst into tears. He felt completely disoriented and unsure what to do. He had started so confidently, so sure of himself. Now, he felt like a complete failure. How he longed for his father! When Johnny had played this game in the past, his father had navigated him through the course. But this time, Johnny hadn't heard his father's voice. Where had his father been?

"Johnny?" he heard a familiar voice whisper tenderly. Johnny couldn't believe his ears. "Father? Father, is that you?" "Yes, son, it's me." "Oh, Father, where have you been?" Johnny cried. "I've been standing by your side the whole time," Johnny's father replied. Johnny was perplexed. "Father, if you were right here, why couldn't I hear your voice?"

Johnny's father's voice was filled with tender love as he replied, "Well, Son, you were so worried about getting it right and doing a good job that you couldn't really hear what I had to say. You were more concerned about getting through the course correctly in everyone else's eyes than in listening to my voice." "But I wanted to get it right for your sake, Father. I wanted to show them all that you had trained me well!" Johnny replied. His father's response surprised Johnny. "Johnny, don't worry about what others think. Just stop and listen to my voice. Walk forward in joy, enjoying each step you take."

So Johnny wiped his tears and started forward again. At first, he had a hard time tuning out the voice of those around him and focusing on his father's voice. He did care so much about what others thought of him! But gradually, he began to care less and less. He began to relax and enjoy the game, listening to His father's patient instructions. He stopped worrying about getting it right and just started delighting in simply listening!

Hymn 1

FOR THE MIGHT OF THINE ARM

1. For the might of Thine arm we bless thee, our God, our fathers' God; Thou hast kept thy pilgrim people by the strength of thy staff and rod; Thou hast called us to the journey which faithless feet ne'er trod; For the might of thine arm we bless thee, our God, our fathers' God
2. For the love of Christ constraining, that bound their hearts as one; For the faith in truth and freedom in which their work was done; For the peace of God's evangel wherewith their feet were shod; For the might of thine arm we bless thee, our God, our fathers' God
3. We are watchers of a beacon whose light must never die We are guardians of an altar that shows thee ever nigh; We are children of thy freemen who sleep beneath the sod; For the might of thine arm we bless thee, our God, our fathers' God
4. May the shadow of thy presence around our camp be spread; Baptize us with the courage thou gavest to our dead; O keep us in the pathway their saintly feet have trod; For the might of thine arm we bless thee, our God, our fathers' God

Life Lessons

"Your most profound and intimate experiences of worship will likely be in your darkest days - when your heart is broken, when you feel abandoned, when you're out of options, when the pain is great - and you turn to God alone." - Rick Warren "When you turn to God you discover He has been facing you all the time." - Zig Ziglar "Restoration and hope is available each time you return to God." - Jim George "Our way lies not in human ingenuity, but in a return to God." - Billy Graham

Hymn 2

SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER

1. Sweet hour of prayer, Sweet hour of prayer,
That calls me from a world of care
And bids me at my Father's throne
Make all my wants and wishes known!
In seasons of distress and grief
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare
By thy return sweet hour of prayer
2. Sweet hour of prayer, Sweet hour of prayer,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless;
And since He bids me seek His face,
Believe His Word and trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care.
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer
3. Sweet hour of prayer, Sweet hour of prayer,
May I Thy consolation share
Till from Mount Pisgah's lofty height
I view my home and take my flight;
This robe of flesh I'll drop and rise
To seize the everlasting prize,
And shout while passing
Through the air, "Farewell, farewell,
Sweet hour of prayer"
