THE RISK OF FAITH - Steve Troxel

At the beginning of Elijah's ministry, God sent him to stay with a widow and her son. When he first arrived, Elijah asked the widow for some bread. The woman sadly said she only had enough for one final meal for herself and her son (1Kg. 17: 12). The widow had completely given up on life. She believed she was preparing her last meal, but Elijah told her to trust God and make him something to eat out of the remaining flour. Elijah said it was God's plan to provide for all her needs...but she must believe.

"For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord gives rain on the land'" (1Kings 17: 14). The widow could have used the remaining food to feed herself and her son, but she risked all she had and did as Elijah requested. Even though she couldn't see the extra food or understand how it would arrive, she had faith in God's Word and took action based on her faith. "Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see" (Hebrews 11: 1). The risk was great, but God's promise and provision were even greater: "So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family. For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the Word of the Lord spoken by Elijah" (1Kings 17: 15-16).

Taking a step of faith ALWAYS requires risk - always requires stepping into the unknown. If we could see every detail about where God was leading and how He would provide, we wouldn't need faith. But if there is any "success" to be had in the Christian walk, it will only come as we daily live by faith - as we live each and every moment by listening intently for the call of God and then trusting Him, even through our fear, as we step into what we cannot see. This is where the true blessings of God reside.

When God calls us to a place where we must be "certain of what we do not see," we must boldly step out. We must overcome our fears with a faith grounded in the promises of His Word and trust Him with all our heart. If we are careful to listen, we most certainly will hear the call of God. He is faithful and will never lead us astray. So when we hear His call, let's be prepared to step out and take the risk of faith.

Hymn 1

STANDING ON THE PROMISES

1. Standing on the promises of Christ my King,
Through eternal ages let His praises ring;
Glory in the highest, I will shout and sing,
Standing on the promises of God

CHORUS:

*Stand---ing, ...stand---ing, ...
Standing on the promises of God my Saviour;
Stand---ing, ...stand---ing, ...
I'm standing on the promises of God.*

2. Standing on the promises that cannot fail,
When the howling storms of doubt and fear assail,
By the living word of God I shall prevail,
Standing on the promises of God

3. Standing on the promises I now can see,
Perfect, present cleansing in the blood for me;
Standing in the liberty where Christ makes free,
Standing on the promises of God

4. Standing on the promises of Christ the Lord,
Bound to Him eternally by love's strong cord,
Overcoming daily with the Spirit's sword,
Standing on the promises of God

5. Standing on the promises I cannot fall,
Listening every moment to the Spirit's call
Resting in my Savior as my all in all,
Standing on the promises of God

Hymn 2

BE GONE, UNBELIEF

1. Be gone, unbelief, My Savior is near,
And for my relief Will surely appear:
By prayer let me wrestle, And He will perform;
With Christ in the vessel, I smile at the storm.

2. Though dark be my way, Since He is my Guide,
'Tis mine to obey, 'Tis His to provide:
Though cisterns be broken, And creatures all fail,
The word He hath spoken Shall surely prevail

3. His love, in time past, Forbids me to think
He'll leave me at last In trouble to sink:
Each sweet Ebenezer I have in review
Confirms His good pleasure To help me quite through

4. Why should I complain Of want or distress,
Temptation or pain?- He told me no less;
The heirs of salvation, I know from His Word,
Through much tribulation Must follow their Lord

5. How bitter that cup No heart can conceive,
Which He drank quite up, That sinners might live!
His way was much rougher And darker than mine;
Did Christ, my Lord, suffer, And shall I repine?

6. Since all that I meet Shall work for my good,
The bitter is sweet, The medicine, food;
Though painful at present, 'Twill cease before long,
And then - oh, how pleasant The conqueror's song!
