MOUNTAIN MOVING FAITH

A small congregation in the foothills of the Great mountain built a new sanctuary on a piece of land willed to them by a church member. Ten days before the new church was to open, the local building inspector informed the pastor that the parking lot was inadequate for the size of the building. Until the church doubled the size of the parking lot, they would not be able to use the new sanctuary.

Unfortunately, the church with its undersized parking lot had used every inch of their land except for the mountain against which it had been built. In order to build more parking spaces, they would have to move the mountain out of the back yard. Undaunted, the pastor announced the next Sunday morning that he would meet that evening with all members who had "mountain-moving faith". They would hold a prayer session asking God to remove the mountain from the back yard and to somehow provide enough money to have it paved and painted before the scheduled opening dedication service the following week.

At the appointed time, 24 of the congregation's 300 members assembled for prayer. They prayed for nearly three hours. At ten o'clock the pastor said the final "Amen". "We'll open next Sunday as scheduled," he assured everyone. "God has never let us down before, and I believe He will be faithful this time too." The next morning as he was working in his study there came a loud knock at his door. When he called "come in", a rough looking construction foreman appeared, removing his hard hat as he entered.

"Excuse me, Reverend. I'm from Acme Construction Company over in the next county. We're building a huge new shopping mall over there and we need some fill-in sand. Would you be willing to sell us a chunk of that mountain behind the church? We'll pay you for the dirt we remove and pave all the exposed area free of charge, if we can have it right away. We can't do anything else until we fill in the sand and allow it to settle properly." The little church was dedicated the next Sunday as originally planned and there were far more members with "mountain-moving faith" on opening Sunday than there had been the previous week!

Hymn 1

PRAISE, MY SOUL, THE KING

1. Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me His praise should sing?
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King
2. Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same forever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless,
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness
3. Father-like, He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows
4. Angels, help us to adore Him;
Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before Him,
Dwellers all in time and space
Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise with us the God of grace

Hymn 2

HAPPY THE HEART WHERE GRACES REIGN

1. Happy the heart, where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast;
Love is the brightest of the train,
And perfects all the rest
2. Knowledge alas! 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our fear,
Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
If love be absent there
3. 'Tis love that makes our cheerful feet,
In swift obedience move:
The devils know and tremble too;
But Satan cannot love.
4. This is the grace that lives and sings.
When faith and hope shall cease;
'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings,
In the sweet realm of bliss
5. Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away,
To see our gracious God
