TREASURES IN HEAVEN - Brian Tabb

Think about your toys as a child. You doubtless spent hours playing with those toy cars, dolls, stuffed animals, or video games that are probably now either stored in a box in the attic or discarded in a landfill. Think about your family's first computer. As useful and enjoyable as it was, the technology is now obsolete, forcing you to replace it with a newer model. Today's top smart phone will be cast off in another three years. Your new car will rust and eventually break down. The birthday present your children ask for will likely be neglected or forgotten a year from now. Such is the life cycle of all our possessions.

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth" doesn't mean that Christians shouldn't give gifts, use computers, drive cars, buy homes, or save for retirement. But his teaching raises the important question: Where is our treasure? What does how we spend our paychecks say about what we most deeply enjoy and esteem? Jesus teaches a great deal about money because he knows that the way we use it signals where our heart is - that is, what we worship.

Christians and non-Christians go to the same grocery stores, shopping malls, and websites to buy what they need and want. They deposit their earnings at the same banks. Yet Jesus demands that his followers lay up treasures in heaven. We do this by using our money and possessions strategically and sacrificially to serve others in love and to advance God's kingdom priorities.

In Matthew 13: 44 Jesus tells a short parable to explain how people come to experience God's kingdom: "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." The point is that God's saving presence and sovereign rule are extraordinarily precious treasures, more valuable and more desirable than anything else. The man in the parable is not motivated by duty but delight - "in his joy he goes and sells all." This is the nature of genuine conversion, when we are awakened to the stunning glory and satisfying fullness of King Jesus. We would gladly sell our baseball card collection, iPad, and Honda hatchback to gain the Hope Diamond. How much more God's kingdom.

Hymn 1

NEARER MY GOD TO THEE

1. Nearer, my God to Thee, Nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,

CHORUS:

*Nearer, my God, to Thee, (repeat)
Nearer to Thee!*

2. Though like the wanderer, The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me, My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be

3. There let the way appear, Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me, In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me

4. Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with Thy praise, Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I'll raise; So by my woes to be

5. Or if on joyful wing, Leaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be

Life Lessons

"You can let your kid live in a big house, eat a good meal, learn piano, watch a big screen TV. But when you are cutting grass, please let them experience it. After a meal, let them wash their plates and bowls together with their brothers and sisters. It is not because you do not have money to hire a maid, but it is because you want to love them in a right way. You want them to understand, no matter how rich their parents are, one day their hair will grow gray and they will die. The most important thing is your kid learns how to appreciate the effort and experience the difficulty and learns the ability to work with others to get things done." - Anonymous

Hymn 2

THE LORD'S MY SHEPHERD

1. The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by

2. My soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake

3. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet, will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still

4. My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows

5. Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be
