CHASTITY IS A VIRTUE - Lauren Winner

We often talk in the church about the consequences of having premarital sex - and there are, of course, consequences. We talk about the possibility of STDs, or unwanted pregnancy - we talk about cheapening something that God intended us to participate in with only one other person. All those points are true, of course, but the most essential truth of chastity is that in turning away from certain expressions of sexuality and romanticism, we can allow ourselves to focus on God in a particular way that would otherwise not be possible.

So don't dress modestly or refrain from having premarital sex because doing so will help you attract an upright, God-fearing Christian partner (though, of course, that might also happen) - dress modestly and refrain from premarital sex because doing so allows you to focus on your truest Lover, the Lord. Practice chastity because, in the words of 6th-century monk John Climacus, "Chastity makes us familiar with God."

Chastity is not the only, or even the most important, aspect of Christian discipleship. Indeed, even to think about, say, chastity, tithing, and prayer as wholly discreet, distinct activities is to miss the point - for the gospel is not an invitation to compartmentalized living. It is, instead, an engagement in love. The questions we should ask are not, "Do I have the strength to deal with chastity or tithing?" but, "What is the whole duty of man? What does it mean to be wholly converted?"

By Jesus' standard, the standard of lusting in our hearts, every one of us has sexual sin to deal with. And though having premarital sex does (as we have discussed above) have consequences, it is not the unforgivable sin. Jesus' blood is more powerful than any sin we can commit, and should we repent and turn around, away from sin and toward God, we will find both forgiveness, and - like the adulterous woman whom Jesus tells to go and sin no more - the grace to live more faithful lives of Christian discipleship.

Hymn 1

SING THEM OVER AGAIN

1. Sing them over again to me
Wonderful words of life
Let me more of Thy beauty see
Wonderful words of life
Words of life and beauty
Teach me faith and duty

CHORUS:

Beautiful words, wonderful words)
Wonderful words of life) x2ce

2. Christ the blessed One gives to all
Wonderful words of life
Sinner, list to the loving call
Wonderful words of life
All so freely given
Wooing us to heaven

3. Sweetly echo the gospel call
Wonderful words of life
Offer pardon and peace to all
Wonderful words of life
Jesus, only Saviour
Sanctify forever

Life Pasture

"Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." - Matthew 5: 8 "...keep thyself pure." - 1 Timothy 5: 22c "But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation." - 1 Peter 1: 15 "And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure." - 1 John 3: 3

Happy New Month!

Hymn 2

SING THE WONDROUS LOVE

1. Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace;
In the mansions bright and blessed,
He'll prepare for us a place

CHORUS:

*When we all get to heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory*

2. While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when travelling days are over,
Not a shadow not a sigh!

3. Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory,
Will the toils of life repay!
