UPON HOLY GROUND - Ravi Zaharias

Oscar Wilde in his De Profundis, written in prison said, "Prosperity, pleasure, and success may be rough of grain and common in fibre, but sorrow is holy ground and those who do not learn to walk there know nothing of what living means. They will know nothing of life till they do." What he means at the very least is that some of life's most sacred truths are learned in the midst of sorrow. He learned, for example, that raw unadulterated pleasure for pleasure's sake is never a fulfilling pleasure. Violation of the sacred in the pursuit of happiness is not truly a source of happiness. In fact, it kills happiness because it can run roughshod over many a victim. Pleasure that profanes is pleasure that destroys.

Sorrow on the other hand - while never pursued - comes into one's life and compels us to see our own finitude and frailty. It demands of us seriousness and tenderness if we are to live life the way it is meant to be lived. One of the most important things sorrow does is to show us what it needs and responds to. Wilde said it himself: "Sorrow is a wound that bleeds when any hand but that of love touches it, and even then must bleed again, though not in pain."

Of all the descriptions given about Jesus, there is one that unabashedly stands out to confront us. It is a description uttered by the prophet Isaiah, prodding mind and heart at once: "He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. Like one from whom men hide their faces; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. Surely He took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered Him stricken by God, smitten by Him, and afflicted" (Isa.53:3). In this season of Easter before us, with whatever sorrows we might be holding, it is a description all the more fitting to reflect upon.

Maybe you are at a time in your life when hurt is written large upon your thoughts. The Lord Jesus is not unacquainted with your pain. In fact, he draws near particularly with a hand of love. Your wound may still bleed for a while to remind you of your weakness. But he can help carry the pain to carry you in strength. This could indeed be holy ground for you. It was most certainly for him.

Hymn 1

I SING TH'ALMIGHTY POWER

1. I sing th'Almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies
2. I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day,
The moon shines full at His command,
And all the stars obey
3. I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food
He formed the creatures with His word,
And then pronounced them good
4. Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed,
Where'er I turn mine eye,
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky;
5. There's not a plant or flower below
But makes Thy glories known,
And clouds arise and tempests blow
By order from Thy throne
6. God's hand is my perpetual guard,
He guides me with His eye;
Why should I then forget the Lord,
Whose love is ever nigh?

Hymn 2

I HAVE FOUND A FRIEND IN JESUS

1. I have found a friend in Jesus, - He's everything to me
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul!
The "Lily of the Valley," in Him alone I see -
All I need to cleanse and make me fully whole;
In sorrow He's my comfort, in trouble He's my stay;
He tells me every care on Him to roll:
He's the "Lily of the Valley," the "Bright and Morning Star,
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul!

CHORUS:

*In sorrow He's my comfort, in trouble He's my stay;
He tells me every care on Him to roll;
He's the "Lily of the Valley," the Bright and Morning Star,
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul!*

2. He all my grief has taken, and all my sorrows borne;
In temptation He's my strong and mighty tower;
I've all for Him forsaken, I've all my idols torn;
From my heart - and now He keeps me by His power;
Though all the world forsake me, and Satan tempt me sore;
Through Jesus I shall safely reach the goal;
He's the "Lily of the Valley," the "Bright and Morning Star",
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul!

3. He'll never, never leave me nor yet forsake me here;
While I live by faith, and do His blessed will;
A wall of fire about me, I've nothing now to fear;
With His manna He my hungry soul shall fill;
When crowned at last in glory, I'll see His blessed face;
Where rivers of delight shall ever roll;
He's the "Lily of the Valley", the "Bright and Morning Star";
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul!
