THE SHOE MAN

I showered and shaved... I adjusted my tie. I got there and sat in a pew just in time; bowing my head in prayer as I closed my eyes. I saw the shoe of the man next to me touching my own... I sighed. With plenty of room on either side... I thought, 'Why must our soles touch?' It bothered me, his shoe touching mine but it didn't bother him much. A prayer began: 'Our Father'..., 'This man with the shoes has no pride. They're dusty, worn, and scratched. Even worse, there are holes on the side!' 'Thank You for blessings,' the prayer went on. The shoe man said a quiet 'Amen.' I tried to focus on the prayer but my thoughts were on his shoes again. Aren't we supposed to look our best when coming to church? 'Well, this certainly isn't it,' I thought, glancing toward the floor.

Then the prayer was ended and the songs of praise began. The shoe man was certainly loud... sounding proud as he sang. His voice lifted the rafters... his hands were raised high. The Lord could surely hear the shoe man's voice from the sky. It was time for the offering and what I threw in was steep. I watched as the shoe man reached into his pocket so deep. I saw what was pulled out... what the shoe man put in. Then I heard a soft 'clink' as when silver hits tin. The sermon really bored me to tears, and that's no lie. It wasn't the same for the shoe man... for tears fell from his eyes. At the end of the service as is the custom here. We must greet new visitors, and show them all good cheer. But I felt moved somehow and wanted to meet the shoe man. So after the closing prayer... I reached over and shook his hand. He was old and his skin was dark and his hair was truly a mess. But I thanked him for coming... for being our guest. He said, 'My name is Charlie... I'm glad to meet you, my friend.' There were tears in his eyes... but he had a large, wide grin. 'Let me explain,' he said... wiping tears from his eyes. 'I've been coming here for months... and you're the first to say 'Hi.'

'I know that my appearance is not like all the rest. But I really do try to always look my best. I always clean and polish my shoes before my very long walk. But by the time I get here... they're dirty and dusty, like chalk.' My heart filled with pain... and I swallowed to hide my tears. As he continued to apologize... for daring to sit so near. He said, 'When I get here... I know I must look a sight. But I thought if I could touch you... then maybe our souls might unite. I was silent for a moment... knowing whatever was said would pale in comparison... I spoke from my heart, not my head. 'Oh, you've touched me,' I said... 'and taught me, in part; that the best of any man is what is found in his heart.' The rest, I thought, this shoe man will never know. Like just how thankful I really am... that his dirty old shoe touched my soul.

Hymn 1

WHERE SHALL I BE?

1. When judgment day is drawing nigh - Where shall I be? When God the works of men shall try - Where shall I be? When east and west the fire shall roll - Where shall I be? How will it be with my poor soul? - Where shall I be?

Chorus:

O! Where shall I be when the first trumpet sounds?

O! Where shall I be when it sounds so loud?

*When it sounds so loud as to wake up the dead,
Where shall I be when it sounds?*

2. When wicked men his wrath shall see - Where shall I be? And to the rocks and mountains flee - Where shall I be? When hills and mountains flee away - Where shall I be? When all the works of men decay - Where shall I be?

3. When heav'n & earth as some great scroll - Where shall I be? Shall from God's angry presence roll - Where shall I be? When all the saints, redeemed shall stand - Where shall I be? Forever blessed at God's right hand - Where shall I be?

4. All trouble done, all conflict past - Where shall I be? And old Apollyon slain at last - Where shall I be? When Christ shall reign from shore to shore - Where shall I be? And peace abide forever more - Where shall I be?

Hymn 2

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

1. To God be the glory! Great things He hath done; So loved He the world that He gave us His Son; Who yielded His life an atonement for sin, And opened the Life-gate that all may go in

Chorus:

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the earth hear His voice! Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the people rejoice! Oh, come to the Father, through Jesus the Son; And give Him the glory – great things He hath done!

2. O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood, To every believer the promise of God; The vilest offender who truly believes, That moment from Jesus a pardon receives

3. Great things He hath taught us, great things He hath done, And great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son; But purer, and higher, and greater will be Our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see
