FAITH, WORKS OR BOTH

"Yea, a man may say, thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works."

- James 2:18

Christianity is separated from other major religions by this biblical truth: There is nothing man can do to earn the favour of God. Salvation in other religions is dependent on the good works of man to please the deity, or to ensure one's favoured place in the cosmic scheme of things. Only Christianity sets man's good works aside and focuses salvation on the grace of God. Even with that biblical clarity, some Christians still get confused about the place of good works.

It is best understood this way: Christians are not saved by good works, but they are saved for good works. Ephesians 2:8-10 could not be clearer: "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

We are saved by grace alone through faith in order to accomplish the good works for which God saved us. Our ongoing works, carried out for God, become a sign and testimony of the reality of our salvation. A person saved by grace stops working for self and begins working for God. Christ's work on the cross removed any necessity of our works for salvation. Our works are an expression of gratitude for His.

Anyone can devise a plan by which good people go to heaven but only God can devise a plan whereby sinners, which are His enemies, can go to heaven.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

LORD, BEHOLD US WITH THY BLESSING

1. Lord, behold us with Thy blessing,
Once again assembled here;
Onward be our footsteps pressing,
In Thy love, and faith, and fear;
Still protect us
By Thy presence ever near

2. For Thy mercy we adore Thee,
For this rest upon our way;
Lord again we bow before Thee,
Speed our labours day by day;
Mind and spirit
With Thy choicest gifts array

3. Keep the spell of home affection
Still alive in every heart;
May its power, with mild direction,
Draw our love from self apart,
Till Thy children
Feel that Thou their Father art. Amen.

Life Lessons

"Faith is the starting-post of obedience." - Thomas Chalmers
"Believing and obeying always run side by side." - C. H. Spurgeon
"If God gives you St. Paul's faith, you will soon have St. James's works." - Augustus M. Toplady
"Faith and obedience are bound up in the same bundle. He that obeys God, trusts God; and he that trusts God obeys God." - C. H. Spurgeon

Hymn 2

LIKE THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

1. Like the woman at the well I was seeking
For things that could not satisfy;
And then I heard my Savior speaking:
"Draw from My well that never shall run dry."

CHORUS:

*Fill my cup, Lord; I lift it up, Lord!
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole!*

2. There are millions in this world who are craving
The pleasure earthly things afford;
But none can match the wondrous treasure
That I find in Jesus Christ my Lord

3. So, my brother, if the things this world gave you
Leave hungers that won't pass away;
My blessed Lord will come and save you,
If you kneel to Him and humbly pray:
