ONE SOLITARY LIFE

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in yet another obscure village where He worked in a carpenter's shop until He was thirty, and then for three years He was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book, He never held an office, He never had a family, He never owned a house, He never went to college, He never visited a big city, He never traveled two hundred miles from the place He was born.

He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness. He had no credentials but Himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away, He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial.

He was nailed on a cross between two thieves. While He was dying His executioners gambled for His clothing, the only property He had on earth. When He was dead He was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Twenty centuries have come and gone and today Jesus is the central figure of the human race, the leader of mankind's progress.

All the armies that have marched, All the navies that have sailed, All the parliaments that have ever sat, All the kings that have ever reigned put together, have not affected the life of mankind as much as that ONE SOLITARY LIFE. - James Francis, 1926

Wonderful words of life
All so freely given

Life Lessons

"Though heaven is God's palace, yet it is not His prison." - Thomas Brooks "God is neither shut up in nor shut out of any place." - George Swinnock "A man may hide God from himself, and yet he cannot hide himself from God." - William Secker "God is in science, history and our conscience, and these three are one." - Joseph Cook "This is the fundamental thing, the most serious thing of all, that we are always in the presence of God." - D. M Lloyd-Jones

Hymn 2

SING THE WONDROUS LOVE

1. Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace;
In the mansions bright and blessed,
He'll prepare for us a place

CHORUS:

*When we all get to heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory*

2. While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when travelling days are over,
Not a shadow not a sigh!

3. Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory,
Will the toils of life repay!
