AN EVER PRESENT HELP

The Lord does not promise that life will be without problems. To the contrary, Jesus plainly states that in this world we will have trouble (Jn.16:33). These troubles can come in various forms including persecution, rejection by family and friends, hardships, trials and temptations. Some of these troubles are the natural result of living in a fallen world. Some of them develop as the result of sin, whether our own or that of others. Some troubles are the result of spiritual opposition to our faith. And some troubles come into our lives as disciplinary measures designed to help us develop spiritual maturity. In any case, we often find ourselves in great need of help and deliverance. Perhaps you are in a season of great difficulty and need. Even though the Lord does not promise a trouble-free life, He does promise to be with us and to help us as we face trouble. For example, He declares, "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you..." (Isa.43: 2). The Psalmist echoes this truth when he writes that "God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging" (Ps.46: 1-3). The Psalmist then re-emphasizes the source of his confidence: "The Lord Almighty is with us...The Lord Almighty is with us" (Ps.46: 7,11). In the twenty-third Psalm, David reassures us that even when we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we do not need to fear evil, because the Lord is with us. And, Hebrews adds, "...God has said, Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you. So we say with confidence, The Lord is my Helper; I will not be afraid..." (Heb.13: 5-6).

What an awesome thought: The Lord is with us... He is an ever present help in trouble! Are you presently in the midst of trouble? Then look unto the Lord and place your confidence in Him. He desires to be our refuge and our ever present help in trouble. And not only does He desire to help, but He is more than able to help us in any situation. He is able to comfort us in our troubles (2Cor.1: 4); to rescue us from trials (2Pet.2: 9); to make all grace abound to us (2Cor.9: 8); to meet all of our needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus (Phil.4: 19); to sanctify us through and through (1Thess.5: 23); to encourage and strengthen us (2Thess.2: 17); to protect us from the evil one (2Thess.3: 3); to forgive our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness (1Jn.1: 9); to equip us with everything good for doing His will (Heb.13: 21); to restore us and make us strong, firm and steadfast (1Pet.5: 10); to keep us from falling and to present us before His glorious presence without fault and with great joy (Jude 24); to give rest to all who are weary and burdened (Matt.11: 28); to give us peace that transcends understanding (Phil.4: 7); to rescue us from every evil attack and bring us safely into His heavenly kingdom (2Tim.4: 18); to prevent us from being tempted beyond what we can bear and to provide a way out of temptation so that we can stand up under it (1Cor.10: 13). The Lord is able. As a matter of fact, He is "able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine" (Eph.3: 20). - Rich Carmicheal

Hymn 1

WE GIVE THEE BUT THINE OWN

1. We give Thee but Thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be;
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee
2. May we Thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first-fruits give
3. O hearts are bruised and dead,
And homes are bare and cold,
And lambs, for whom the Shepherd bled
Are straying from the fold
4. To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels' work below
5. The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,
It is a Christ-like thing
6. And we believe Thy word,
Though dim our faith may be
Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto Thee

Hymn 2

WHEN HE COMETH

1. When He cometh, when He cometh
To make up His jewels
All His jewels precious jewels
His loved and His own

CHORUS:

*Like the stars of the morning
His bright crown adorning
They shall shine in their beauty
Bright gems for His crown*

2. He will gather, He will gather
The gems for His kingdom
All the pure ones, all the bright ones
His loved and His own
3. Little children, little children
Who love their Redeemer
Are the jewels, precious jewels
His loved and His own
