ENTERING HIS REST - Chip Brogden

"Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." – Matthew 11: 28

"Come to Me." Come to Me. Not a church. Not a man of God. Not a teaching. Not a group. Come to Me, and learn of Me. I will give you rest. No one else can give you rest. You cannot earn rest also. Rest is the gift of God.

If you are a born-again, child of God then you must have done this at least once in your life. The moment you said, "God, I cannot save myself. I trust in the finished work of Christ to save me, Jesus be My Saviour and Lord," that is when you stopped trying to earn your salvation through works. You entered into rest. You "retired" from being your own saviour. And most people have learned that it is settled from that moment on. You would not dream of going back to the days of trying to work for your salvation. You're saved and you know it.

That is how you begin the Christian life. But there is more to the Christian life than just getting saved. That is the first step into a larger world. Jesus is continually calling out to you, saying, "Come to Me, and I will give you rest." It is a progressive thing; it is a daily thing. Every day we come to Jesus, every day we hand over something else, every day we learn to rest in Him, and trust in Him.

What does it look like? Well, so many Christians struggle with sin. They struggle with their feelings, their emotions, and their memories. They worry, they fret. They are in bondage to fear. They are in bondage to bad habits. They are in bondage to their past hurts. They experience many defeats and very few victories.

Can we not trust Jesus to give us rest from these things as well? If we can trust Him and believe Him for salvation, can we not trust Him and believe Him for victory? That is what He means when He says, "Come to Me, and I will give you rest." This rest that we enter into is intended for every area of life and not just salvation. How very pitiful if we can only rest in salvation but we have no peace, no rest, no freedom from the constant stresses and disappointments, frustrations and fears of this present time.

Hymn 1

I AM THINE, O LORD

1. I am Thine, O Lord, I have heard Thy voice,
And it told Thy love to me;
But I long to rise in the arms of faith
And be closer drawn to Thee

CHORUS:

*Draw me near-er, nearer, blessed Lord,
To the cross where Thou hast died,
Draw me nearer, nearer,
Nearer, blessed Lord,
To Thy precious, bleeding side*

2. Consecrate me now to Thy service, Lord,
By the pow'r of grace divine;
Let my soul look up with a steadfast hope
And my will be lost in Thine.

3. O the pure delight of a single hour
That before Thy throne I spend,
When I kneel in pray'r and with Thee my God,
I commune as friend with friend!

4. There are depths of love that I cannot know
Till I cross the narrow sea;
There are heights of joy that I may not reach
Till I rest in peace with Thee.

Life Lesson

"Fear is born of Satan, and if we would only take time to think a moment we would see that everything Satan says is founded upon a falsehood." - A.B. Simpson "Worry is a cycle of inefficient thoughts whirling around a centre of fear." - Corrie Ten Boom "How very little can be done under the spirit of fear." - Florence Nightingale "If you listen to your fears, you will die never knowing what a great person you might have been." - Robert H. Schuller

Hymn 2

LIKE THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

1. Like the woman at the well I was seeking
For things that could not satisfy;
And then I heard my Savior speaking:
"Draw from My well that never shall run dry."

CHORUS:

*Fill my cup, Lord; I lift it up, Lord!
Come and quench this thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more
Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole!*

2. There are millions in this world who are craving The pleasure earthly things afford;
But none can match the wondrous treasure
That I find in Jesus Christ my Lord

3. So, my brother, if the things this world gave you Leave hungers that won't pass away;
My blessed Lord will come and save you,
If you kneel to Him and humbly pray:
