YOUR MIRROR, YOUR FRIEND

A house with no mirrors means you'll never know what needs to be worked on. Most of us wouldn't want a house with no mirrors. But some of us are trying to live our life with no mirrors. Human mirrors, that is. People who, figuratively speaking, hold up a mirror and show us some things about ourselves that we may not want to hear but we really need to hear.

John 8:32 is a blunt, to-the-point bottom line on why we need the truth. "You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Some of us live like the truth will scare us to death or hurt too much. But it can't hurt nearly as much as avoiding the truth about yourself - the truth that continues to poison your relationships, limit your life, and bring you down. Someone may be your "mirror" that is irritating or painful to hear from. But God put those people in your life because He loves you too much to let you keep running from the truth that is costing you so much.

The Bible says, "Iron sharpens iron; so a friend sharpens the countenance of his friend." It may be that someone you might consider an enemy has said some things no one else would say to you about you. And while they mean to hurt you, there may be at least some mirror of truth in what they said.

The truth that might be painful never really goes away. Everywhere you go, you take you with you. God loves you too much to let you keep running, denying, and living a lie. So He's put someone in your life to hold up a mirror. Don't reject what the mirror is trying to show you. And don't blame the mirror - it's the message the mirror is giving you, not the messenger that's the issue.

Thank God for the mirror He's given you. The truth may be hard to face. It may mean opening up to someone who can really help you with it. It may mean removing a mask you've been hiding behind for a long time, but it's worth all that and more. Because it's the truth, and only the truth, that will finally set you free.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

TAKE MY LIFE, AND LET IT BE

1. Take my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
2. Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee
3. Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be
Filled with messages from Thee
4. Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold:
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.
5. Take my will, and make it thine;
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart – it is Thine own,
It shall be Thy royal throne.
6. Take my love: my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure store:
Take myself; and I will be
Ever, only, All for Thee

Life Lesson

"The presence of fear does not mean you have no faith. Fear visits everyone. But make your fear a visitor and not a resident." - Max Lucado "Fear is a self imposed prison that will keep you from becoming what God intends for you to be. You must move against it with the weapons of faith and love." - Rick Warren "The greatest mistake we make is living in constant fear that we will make one." - John Maxwell "A perfect faith would lift us absolutely above fear." - George Macdonald

Hymn 2

THIS IS MY FATHER'S WORLD

1. This is my Father's world.
And to my list'ning ears
All nature sing; and round me rings,
The music of the spheres
This is my Father's world.
I rest me in the thought,
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
His hands, the wonders wrought.
2. This is my Father's world.
The birds their carols raise
The morning light; the lily white,
Declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world.
He shines in all that's fair,
In the rustling grass, I hear Him pass;
He speaks to me ev'ry where.
3. This is my Father's world.
O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong, seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world.
The battle is not done;
Jesus who died shall be satisfied
And earth and heaven be one.
