ENTERING HIS REST

“Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” – Matthew 11: 28

“Come to Me.” Come to Me. Not a church. Not a man of God. Not a teaching. Not a group. Come to Me, and learn of Me. I will give you rest. No one else can give you rest. You cannot earn rest also. Rest is the gift of God.

If you are a born-again, child of God then you must have done this at least once in your life. The moment you said, “God, I cannot save myself. I trust in the finished work of Christ to save me, Jesus be My Saviour and Lord,” that is when you stopped trying to earn your salvation through works. You entered into rest. You “retired” from being your own saviour. And most people have learned that it is settled from that moment on. You would not dream of going back to the days of trying to work for your salvation. You’re saved and you know it.

That is how you begin the Christian life. But there is more to the Christian life than just getting saved. That is the first step into a larger world. Jesus is continually calling out to you, saying, “Come to Me, and I will give you rest.” It is a progressive thing; it is a daily thing. Every day we come to Jesus, every day we hand over something else, every day we learn to rest in Him, and trust in Him.

What does it look like? Well, so many Christians struggle with sin. They struggle with their feelings, their emotions, and their memories. They worry, they fret. They are in bondage to fear. They are in bondage to bad habits. They are in bondage to their past hurts. They experience many defeats and very few victories.

Can we not trust Jesus to give us rest from these things as well? If we can trust Him and believe Him for salvation, can we not trust Him and believe Him for victory? That is what He means when He says, “Come to Me, and I will give you rest.” This rest that we enter into is intended for every area of life and not just salvation. How very pitiful if we can only rest in salvation but we have no peace, no rest, no freedom from the constant stresses and disappointments, frustrations and fears of this present time. - By Chip Brogden

Hymn 1

NEARER MY GOD TO THEE

1. Nearer, my God to Thee, Nearer to Thee!
E’en though it be a cross That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,

CHORUS:

*Nearer, my God, to Thee, (repeat)
Nearer to Thee!*

2. Though like the wanderer, The sun gone down, Darkness be over me, My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I’d be

3. There let the way appear, Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me, In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me

4. Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with Thy praise, Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I’ll raise; So by my woes to be

5. Or if on joyful wing, Leaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly, Still all my song shall be

Hymn 2

THERE SHALL BE SHOWERS

1. There shall be showers of blessing:
This is the promise of love;
There shall be seasons refreshing,
Sent from the Saviour above

CHORUS:

*Showers of blessing,
Showers of blessing we need;
Mercy drops round us are falling,
But for the showers we plead.*

2. There shall be showers of blessing,
Precious reviving again;
Over the hills and the valleys,
Sound of abundance of rain

3. There shall be showers of blessing:
Send them upon us, O Lord;
Grant to us now a refreshing,
Come, and honour Thy Word

4. There shall be showers of blessing:
Oh that today they might fall,
Now as to God we’re confessing,
Now as on Jesus we call!
