THE SOUND OF GRACE - Milan Ford

Does Grace Have A Sound? I remember the look on her face like it was yesterday. But more importantly, I remember the answer she gave me. It is one that has stayed with me for quite some time. Leola reached out to locate the top of my head, and as she gave me a few light pats, she leaned over and whispered these words: "Live A Little Longer, Milan. You'll Hear It."

While it didn't make sense to me then, fast forward several years, and I now understand exactly what she meant. Grace indeed has a sound.

It's the sound my minivan made last week, just as I slammed on the brakes to avoid colliding with that metal object that flew off the back of a truck in front of me.

It's the sound of my wife's 87-year old grandmother blowing out the candles on her birthday cake last month, as she endures the inconvenience of dialysis treatment every week.

It's the sound my new neighbour's keys make, as she opens the door to a home that someone else last summer no longer had the money to keep.

It's the sound of yet another grocery receipt being printed out, after my wife and I spent the night before racking our brains as to how we were going to fill the fridge.

The sounds of grace are all around us. If we could ever (as believers) become blind to some of the things we complain about regarding our lives, and open our ears towards a faithful God, we may be surprised to discover a symphony of grace and salvation.

God's grace is more than amazing. It's the sweetest sound I know.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

HOLY BIBLE, BOOK DIVINE

1. Holy Bible, Book divine,
Precious treasure, thou art mine:
Mine to tell me whence I came;
Mine to teach me what I am

2. Mine to chide me when I rove,
Mine to show a Saviour's love;
Mine thou art to guide and guard;
Mine to punish or reward

3. Mine to comfort in distress,
Suff'ring in this wilderness;
Mine to show, by living faith,
We can triumph over death

4. Mine to tell of joys to come
And the rebel sinner's doom:
O thou holy Book divine,
Precious treasure, thou art mine.

Hymn 2

HE WHO WOULD VALIANT BE

1. He who would valiant be
'Gainst all disaster,
Let him in constancy,
Follow the Master,
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim

2. Who so beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound
His strength the more is
No foes shall stay his might,
Though he with giants fight,
He will make good his right
To be a pilgrim

3. Since, Lord thou dost defend
Us with thy Spirit,
We know we at the end
Shall life inherit
Then fancies flee away!
I'll fear not what men say
I'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim
