IT'S GOING TO BE OKAY - Max Lucado

Bill Tucker was sixteen years old when his dad suffered a health crisis and consequently had to leave his business. Even after Mr. Tucker regained his health, the Tucker family struggled financially, barely getting by. Mr. Tucker, an entrepreneurial sort, came up with an idea. He won the bid to re-upholster the chairs at the local movie theatre. This stunned his family. He had never stitched a seat. He didn't even own a sewing machine. Still, he found someone to teach him the skill and located an industrial machine. The family scraped together every cent they had to buy it. They drained their savings accounts and dug coins out of the sofa. Finally, they had enough. It was a fine day when Bill road with his dad to pick up the equipment. Bill remembers a jovial, hour-long trip discussing the bright horizons this new opportunity afforded them. They loaded the machine in the back of their truck and secured it right behind the cab. Mr. Tucker then invited his son to drive home. I'll let Bill tell you what happened next:

"As we were driving along, we were excited, and I, like any sixteen-year-old driver, was probably not paying enough attention to my speed. Just as we were turning on the cloverleaf to get on the expressway, I will never ever forget watching that sewing machine, which was already top-heavy, begin to tip. I slammed on the brakes, but it was too late. I saw it go over the side. I jumped out and ran around the back of the truck. As I rounded the corner, I saw our hope and our dream lying on its side in pieces. And then I saw my dad just looking. All of his risk and all of his endeavor and all of his struggling and all of his dream, all of his hope to take care of his family was lying there, shattered!

"You know what comes next don't you? 'Stupid, punk kid driving too fast, not paying attention, ruined the family by taking away our livelihood.' But that's not what he said. He looked right at me. 'Oh, Bill, I am so sorry.' And he walked over, put his arms around me, and said, 'Son, this is going to be okay.' God is whispering the same to you. Those are His arms you feel. Trust Him. That is His voice you hear. Believe Him. Allow the only Decision Maker in the universe to comfort you. Life at times appears to fall to pieces that seem irreparable. But it's going to be okay. How can you know? Because God so loved the world. If God can make a billion galaxies, can't He make good out of our bad and sense out of our senseless, faltering lives? Of course He can. He is God.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS

1. Crown Him with many crowns The Lamb upon His throne; Hark! How the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own: Awake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee, And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all eternity

2. Crown Him the Lord of life, Who triumphed o'er the grave, And rose victorious in the strife For those He came to save; His glories now we sing Who died, and rose on high, Who died – eternal life to bring, And lives, that death may die

3. Crown Him the Lord of peace, Whose power a sceptre sways From pole to pole, that wars may cease And all be prayer and praise: His reign shall know no end, And round His pierced feet Fair flowers of paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet

4. Crown Him the Lord of love; Behold His hands and side, Those wounds, yet visible above, In beauty glorified: All hail, Redeemer, hail! For Thou hast died for me: Thy praise and glory shall not fail Through out eternity. Amen.

Hymn 2

LORD, DISMISS US WITH THY BLESSING

1. Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing Thanks for mercies past received Pardon all, their faults confessing; Time that's lost may all retrieve; May Thy children Ne'er again Thy Spirit grieve

2. By Thy kindly influence cherish All the good we here have gained; May all taint of evil perish By Thy mightier power restrained; Seek we ever Knowledge pure and love unfeigned

3. Let Thy Father-hand be shielding All who here shall meet no more May their seed-time past be yielding Year by year a richer store; Those returning Make more faithful than before. Amen.
