EMBRACE THE EAGLE WITHIN

There is a story about a little eagle that fell out of its nest and landed in a chicken yard. Growing up among the chickens, it learned to walk and eat like them. However, one day, it looked up and saw a majestic eagle soaring above. The little eagle longed to be able to do the same. The great eagle noticed the little one and asked why it was in the chicken yard. The little eagle replied that it had always been there. The majestic eagle then encouraged the little one to spread its wings and follow him. With a flap of its wings, the great eagle lifted off the ground, never to return to the chicken yard again.

To live in the high places, we must be willing to leave our comfort zones. Just as a mother eagle stirs up her nest and nudges her young off the cliff to teach them how to fly, God also pushes us out of our comfort zones. He wants us to learn to depend on Him and not remain stagnant. Waiting on God is another key aspect of living in the high places. Waiting on the Lord means to expect, look for, and set our hope in Him. As we wait on God, our strength is renewed, and we are filled with joy. It is in this waiting that we find the ability to soar like eagles.

Eagles do not fly like other birds, constantly flapping their wings. Instead, they soar effortlessly through the sky. They ride the wind, circling higher and higher. When they encounter a storm, they face it head-on, allowing the wind to lift them safely above it. Similarly, as believers, we should learn to ride on the current of the Holy Spirit. We must rely on God's strength rather than our own. He will lift us above the storms and cares of this world, protecting us from the attacks of the enemy.

Living in the high places allows us to run and not grow weary, to walk and not faint. The high places are where we find refreshment and renewal. When we feel weak or tired, we can wait on the Lord and experience His strength. The Bible encourages us not to grow weary in doing good, for we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Let us not lose heart but continue to press on, knowing that God will renew our strength as we soar in the high places.

In conclusion, just as eagles were created to live in the high places, believers were made to be over-comers. We are called to soar above our circumstances, relying on God's strength and guidance. So, let us spread our wings, leave our comfort zones, and wait on the Lord. As we do so, we will experience the joy of living in the high places, running and not growing weary, walking and not fainting.

Jesus is Lord!

Hymn 1

WHERE SHALL I BE?

1. When judgment day is drawing nigh - Where shall I be?
When God the works of men shall try - Where shall I be?
When east and west the fire shall roll - Where shall I be?
How will it be with my poor soul? - Where shall I be?

Chorus:

O! Where shall I be when the first trumpet sounds?

O! Where shall I be when it sounds so loud?

*When it sounds so loud as to wake up the dead,
Where shall I be when it sounds?*

2. When wicked men his wrath shall see - Where shall I be?
And to the rocks and mountains flee - Where shall I be?
When hills and mountains flee away - Where shall I be?
When all the works of men decay - Where shall I be?

3. When heav'n & earth as some great scroll - Where shall I be?
Shall from God's angry presence roll - Where shall I be?
When all the saints, redeemed shall stand - Where shall I be?
Forever blessed at God's right hand - Where shall I be?

4. All trouble done, all conflict past - Where shall I be?
And old Apollyon slain at last - Where shall I be?
When Christ shall reign from shore to shore - Where shall I be?
And peace abide forever more - Where shall I be?

Life Lessons

*"The way to get started is to quit talking and begin doing."
- Walt Disney "Progress means getting nearer to the place you want to be. And if you have taken a wrong turn, then to go forward does not get you any nearer. If you are on the wrong road, progress means doing an about-turn and walking back to the right road; and in that case, the man who turns back soonest is the most progressive man." - C.S. Lewis "Refuse to be average." - A. W. Tozer*

Hymn 2

WHEN HE COMETH

1. When He cometh, when He cometh
To make up His jewels
All His jewels precious jewels
His loved and His own

CHORUS:

*Like the stars of the morning
His bright crown adorning
They shall shine in their beauty
Bright gems for His crown*

2. He will gather, He will gather
The gems for His kingdom
All the pure ones, all the bright ones
His loved and His own

3. Little children, little children
Who love their Redeemer
Are the jewels, precious jewels
His loved and His own
