FIVE-FINGER PRAYER

This is so neat and beautiful - and it is surely worth making a part of our lives - The Five-Finger Prayer.

1. Your thumb is nearest you. So begin your prayers by praying for those closest to you. They are the easiest to remember. To pray for our loved ones is, as C. S. Lewis once said, a 'sweet duty.'

2. The next finger is the pointing finger. Pray for those who teach, instruct and heal. This includes teachers, doctors and ministers. They need support and wisdom in pointing others in the right direction. Keep them in your prayers.

3. The next finger is the tallest finger. It reminds us of our leaders. Pray for the president, leaders in business and industry, and administrators. These people shape our nation and guide public opinion. They need God's guidance.

4. The fourth finger is our ring finger. Surprising to many is the fact that this is our weakest finger, as any piano teacher will testify. It should remind us to pray for those who are weak, sick, in trouble or in pain. They need your prayers day and night. You cannot pray too much for them.

5. And lastly comes our little finger - the smallest finger of all which is where we should place ourselves in relation to God and others. As the Bible says, 'The least shall be the greatest among you.' Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. By the time you have prayed for the other four groups, your own needs will be put into proper perspective and you will be able to pray for yourself more effectively.

Hymn 1

NEARER MY GOD TO THEE

1. Nearer, my God to Thee,
Nearer to Thee! E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me; Still all my song shall be,

CHORUS:

*Nearer, my God, to Thee, (repeat)
Nearer to Thee!*

2. Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down, Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone, Yet in my dreams I'd be

3. There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven; All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given; Angels to beckon me

4. Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with Thy praise, Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I'll raise; So by my woes to be

5. Or if on joyful wing,
Leaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly, Still all my song shall be

Life Lessons

"Satan trembles when he sees the weakest saint upon their knees." - William Cowper "Prayer can do anything that God can do." - R. A. Torrey "The men who have done the most for God in this world have been early on their knees." - Edward M. Bounds "All great soul-winners have been men of much and mighty prayer, and all great revivals have been preceded and carried out by persevering, prevailing knee-work in the closet." - Samuel L. Brengle

Hymn 2

MUST I GO AND EMPTY HANDED?

1. Must I go – and empty-handed?
Thus my dear Redeemer meet?
Not one day of service give Him,
Lay no trophy at His feet?

CHORUS:

*Must I go – and empty-handed?
Must I meet my Saviour so?
Not one soul with which to greet Him?
Must I empty-handed go?*

2. Not at death I shrink or falter,
For my Saviour saves me now;
But to meet Him empty-handed,
Thought of that now clouds my brow

3. Oh, the years of sinning wasted,
Could I but recall them now;
I would give them to my Saviour,
To His will I'd gladly bow

4. Up, ye saints, arouse, be earnest!
Up and work while yet 'tis day;
Ere the night of death o'ertake you,
Strive for souls while yet you may
